MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

Associate Athletic Director of Strategic Communications Matt Plizga will coordinate all requests and media activities for the Pitt men's basketball program.

Email: mplizga@athletics.pitt.edu
Phone: (412) 648-8242

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Pitt home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations, parking limitations and demand. All credential requests need to be made online at www.sportssystems.com/clients/Pitt_MBB.

Media members are required to make credential arrangements at least 24 hours in advance of the game in question.

A media pass allows accredited media access to the media room, media seating and floor access for photographers/videographers. Only websites of each participating institution with contractual rights and accredited news websites will be issued credentials.

Visiting opponent SIDs may submit a list of attending media members or share the link above for individual credential submissions. To get on that list, please inform the respective media relations contact.

MEDIA WILL CALL

All media members must pick up credentials and enter the arena at Media Will Call. Pitt's Media Will Call/Media Entrance will open two hours prior to tipoff and is located to Concourse C at the Petersen Events Center. Credentials will not be mailed. Visiting radio and TV broadcasters/producers may pick up their credentials at shootaround or through their respective media relations contacts.

Once you have received your credential at Media Will Call, take a left down the concourse and use the small flight of stairs down to reach the Club Level (CL) where you can access the Petersen Events Center media suite. The media area, located at the top of sections 106 and 107, features the media room and press box-style media seating.

MEDIA SUITE

The media suite, located above sections 106 and 107 on the club level of the Petersen Events Center, serves as a multi-purpose space housing pregame meals, postgame interviews, media seating as well as photographer work stations. Print, internet and television media will be able to work from their assigned seat on press row.

The Petersen Events Center has an upgraded free public WiFi with a dedicated media network.

University of Pittsburgh Strategic Communications representatives will be stationed at media will call as well as the media suite entrance.

MEDIA SEATING

Seating in the media suite is limited and will be assigned on a priority basis. The priority basis is as follows:

1. Representatives of Pittsburgh district and metropolitan papers and online outlets filing on deadline, other newspapers/digital outlets covering the respective teams
2. National publications
3. Radio and TV commentators
4. Scouts

All media members must confirm their attendance to guarantee working space.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking may only be obtained/approved through the Strategic Communications Office. Parking is limited and all requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of the game.

Media parking will be in the OC Lot. Media members can access the lot off Allequippa Street (for directions, please refer to the campus map on page 3). Media members must contact the Strategic Communications office to confirm a parking space as a parking list will be at the gate for each game.

INTERVIEW POLICY

The Strategic Communications office will assist all media personnel with coverage of Pitt basketball. All interviews MUST be arranged through Associate AD of Strategic Communications Matt Plizga.

Generally, head coach Jeff Capel and selected players are available for interviews two days prior to each game. Practices are closed to the media unless otherwise notified. If a media member wishes to complete something more in-depth during the week, please contact Matt Plizga at (412) 648-8242 to arrange a time. Out-of-town interview requests for Coach Capel or any player must be made at least 48 hours in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Still photographers and TV news cameramen will receive a regular media pass and be assigned a position on the floor at the baseline. Photographers must remain in the space designated.

Floor locations can be located on the seating chart posted in the media suite.

WIRELESS ACCESS

Wireless internet service is available to media members only throughout the Petersen Events Center. Username and password for wireless internet access will be posted in the media suite.

Network:	pitt-media
Password:	h@il2pitt

ACC TELECONFERENCE

Head coach Jeff Capel is also available on the ACC Men's Basketball Coaches Weekly Media Zoom most Mondays from January 6 through March 3. Media wishing to participate will be given the call-in number upon request.

Feb. 17	11:20 a.m.
Feb. 24	11:10 a.m.
March 3	11:20 a.m.

VISITING RADIO BROADCAST

The visiting radio broadcast crew will be located on the scorers' table next to the visiting bench. There are three seats available for radio crew and traveling SID. As per Atlantic Coast Conference rules, one ISDN line, an ethernet line and one analog phone line will be provided for broadcast.

A facility representative will be available prior to the game to answer any questions and/or assist with technological needs.

It is recommended that each visiting radio crew attend shootaround to set up equipment.

LIVE TV TRUCKS

Local television trucks have been assigned parking on Sutherland Drive (see map on page 3, street leading into the loading dock). Please notify the Strategic Communications office if there is an access problem.

SCOUTS

Scouts are required to make credential arrangements through the Strategic Communications office via email and will be given a media credential. Scouts may pick up their credential at Media Will Call. Parking is available upon request.

NETWORK / LIVE TV NEEDS

The Pitt Strategic Communications office must be notified of all television network and live television needs to guarantee working space.

For technical needs or information, please contact Petersen Events Center/ASM representative Tony Pici at (412) 383-7959. He can also be reached by e-mail at apici@pitt.edu.

POSTGAME PROCEDURE

Following a 10-minute "cooling off" period, requested/selected Pitt student-athletes will be available for interviews in the media suite. Pitt head coach Jeff Capel will be available for questions following his postgame radio show. Visiting team availability format (virtual or in-person) will be at the discretion of the visiting team. Every effort will be made to provide access to requested Pitt players.

Please check with a member of the Pitt Strategic Communications staff for updated information on postgame procedure.

PITT MEDIA SERVICES

Media members may access the most up-to-date information on the Pitt men's basketball team through the athletic department's official website: www.pittsburghpanthers.com.

Game notes, official statistics, recaps, box scores and general releases will be updated regularly. All of this information is available online.

Associate Athletic Director of Strategic Communications Matt Plizga will send out game notes via email prior to each game. To get on the list, please email him at mplizga@athletics.pitt.edu.

JMI SPORTS / AUDACY (93.7 THE FAN)

Pitt Athletics along with its multimedia rights holder JMI Sports, and Audacy provide the Panthers with thoroughly comprehensive radio coverage. Pitt men's basketball game broadcasts air over a loyal network of stations, including 50,000-watt flagship station 93.7 The Fan (KDKA-FM) in Pittsburgh.

Radio coverage includes:

- A 30-minute pregame show and a 30-minute postgame show.
- The Jeff Capel Radio Show a 10-week show airing Thursdays on 93.7 The Fan. There will be one show in November and December with 10 shows during the bulk of ACC play.

In his 56th year, Bill Hillgrove is the "Voice of the Panthers." Hillgrove's informative and enthusiastic play-by-play descriptions have been a Panthers trademark since 1969. A 1962 graduate of Duquesne University, Hillgrove has also served as the play-by-play broadcaster for Pitt football since the 1974 season.

His longevity as a sportscaster has made him one of Pittsburgh's most recognizable and favorite media personalities. He was also the Pittsburgh Steelers' play-by-play announcer from 1994-2024. Hillgrove was awarded the National Football Foundation's 2007 Chris Schenkel Award, which honors a sports broadcaster who has enjoyed a long and distinguished career.

Hillgrove and longtime radio partner Dick Groat were inducted into the Pitt Athletics Hall of Fame Sept. 13, 2024.

Longest Tenured Active Division I Men's Basketball PXP Announcers

Season	Name (School)
57th	Ray Goss (Duquesne)
56th	Bill Hillgrove (Pitt)
52nd	Don Fischer (Indiana)
52nd	Kevin McKinney (Wyoming)
51st	Rich Chvotkin (Georgetown)

Joining Hillgrove courtside for his 15th season is former Panther standout Curtis Aiken. A four-year Pitt basketball letterwinner from 1983-87, Aiken ranks among Pitt's all-time career scoring leaders with 1,200 career points. A key recruit who helped pave the way for Pitt's entry into the Big East, Aiken was the senior leader on Pitt's 1986-87 co-Big East regular season champion team that finished 25-8 overall and 12-4 in league play. Aiken was honored as Pitt's ACC Legend at the 2017 ACC Tournament.

JEFF CAPEL

Head Coach
Seventh Season at Pitt (16th Overall)

Jeff Capel enters his seventh season at the University of Pittsburgh after being announced as the 16th men's basketball head coach in program history March 28, 2018. Capel owns a 259-202 record as a head coach at Pitt (2018-present), Oklahoma (2006-11), and VCU (2002-06) with four NCAA Tournament appearances, including an Elite Eight trip with Oklahoma in 2008.

He has been instrumental in the development of 19 first-round picks in the NBA Draft during his coaching tenure, including 11 lottery picks. Capel has also recruited 23 McDonald's All-America selections and helped build six top-10 recruiting classes.

Last season, the Panthers posted a 20+ win / 10+ conference win season for the second consecutive campaign. Pitt finished 22-11 overall, including a 12-8 mark in ACC play, and reached the ACC Tournament Semifinals. Pitt earned the double bye in the ACC Tournament with its highest seed (4) since joining the league and became the first team in ACC history to start 1-5 or worse through six games and finish regular-season ACC play with a winning record. The Panthers went 12-4 over the final two months of the season to match North Carolina for the best record among ACC teams from Jan. 20 through the start of the NCAA Tournament. Pitt was one of the last four out of the NCAA Tournament, despite posting nine Quad 1/Quad 2 wins and finishing 40th in the final NET, before declining a bid to the NIT.

Pitt led the ACC in three-point field goals (9.6 3pg.) and finished with 317 threes on the season, second most in program history. Blake Hinson earned First Team All-ACC and Second Team NABC All-District honors after averaging 18.5 points per game and making a school record 110 three-point field goals. He also earned National Player of the Week recognition after matching a Petersen Events Center record with 41 points as well as matching his own school record with nine three-point field goals, in mid-February win over Louisville. Carlton Carrington (All-Rookie Team, Honorable Mention All-ACC), and Ishmael Leggett (Sixth Man of the Year) also earned ACC accolades following strong seasons in the backcourt. Carrington, the only freshman in the country to average at least 13.5 points, 5.0 rebounds, and 4.0 assists per game, went on to get selected in the 2024 NBA Draft Lottery (No. 14 overall) by the Washington Wizards (via Portland).

Capel guided a new-look Panthers team to a 24-12 overall record, including a program best 14-6 conference mark and tied for a third-place finish in the ACC in 2022-23. Pitt's bid for its first ACC Regular Season Championship came up just short in the final game of the season, but the Panthers went on to earn an NCAA Tournament at-large bid and topped Mississippi State and Iowa State in the opening rounds of the tournament. Capel garned ACC Coach of the Year accolades as well as USBWA and NABC Regional Coach of the Year honors. The Panthers set school records for three-point field goals (325), three-point attempts (903), free throw percentage (.759), and ACC wins (14). With a roster featuring four impact transfers - Nelly Cummings, Greg Elliott, Hinson, and Federiko Federiko - Pitt posted a 13-win improvement from the 2021-22 season, including a school-record eight-win jump in conference play. Guard Jamarius Burton averaged 15.2 points, 4.8 rebounds, and 4.3 assists per game to become the second Panther to earn First Team All-ACC honors, while Blake Hinson nabbed Second Team All-ACC accolades after finishing the season as one of two players in the NCAA to average at least 15.0 points and 6.0 rebounds, while making 95 or more three-point field goals. Burton and Hinson were the first set of Pitt teammates to earn All-ACC honors in the same season. Nike Sibande also garnered ACC Sixth Man of the Year recognition after averaging 9.7 points per game in league play.

The 2022-23 season also saw the Panthers return to the AP Poll for the first time since the 2015-16 campaign. Pitt posted three wins over ranked opponents - No. 25 North Carolina, No. 11 Virginia, and No. 20 Miami - and was 8-3 overall against the top nine teams in the final ACC standings. The Panthers recorded a season sweep over preseason No. 1 North Carolina and became just the third program to post three or more consecutive wins over the Tar Heels at the Dean E. Smith Center. Pitt ranked among the ACC team leaders in scoring defense (4th - 69.7 ppg.), field goal percentage defense (4th - .420), three-point percentage defense (4th - .327), rebounds (4th - 36.14 rpg.), defensive rebounds (4th - 26.03 pg.), and three-point field goals made (2nd - 9.03 3pg.). Pitt posted five of the top six games in program history for three-point field goals last season, including a record 18 made threes in a Jan. 25 home win over Wake Forest. Capel also led the squad to seven true road wins, fourth most among power conference teams on the year.

In 2021-22, Capel led the Panthers to a road win over NCAA Tournament runner-up North Carolina, as well as victories against ACC rivals Louisville, Syracuse, Florida State, NC State, and Boston College. Sophomore John Hugley IV emerged as one of the top post players in the conference earning Honorable Mention All-ACC accolades after averaging 14.8 points and 7.9 rebounds per game. Transfers Jamarius Burton (12.4 ppg.) and Mouhamadou Gueye (9.8 ppg., 6.3 rpg., 2.1 bpg.) also helped make an immediate impact in their first year with the program.

During the 2020-21 season, Capel led the Panthers to a season sweep of Syracuse as well as home wins over Duke and No. 16 Virginia Tech during a 10-12 campaign that saw four ACC games cancelled due to COVID-19 protocols. Sophomore Justin Champagnie averaged 18.0 points and an ACC-best 11.1 rebounds per game to earn AP Honorable Mention All-America and First Team All-ACC honors. He became the first Pitt player to earn First Team All-ACC honors before entering the NBA Draft and signing a two-way deal with the Toronto Raptors. Pitt also made a significant jump in rebounding finishing second in the ACC in rebounds, rebound margin, offensive rebounds and offensive rebound percentage. The Panthers averaged over 38 rebounds per game for the first time since the 2015-16 season.

In 2020, Capel guided a team featuring one of the least experienced rosters in the NCAA (319th overall) to a 16-17 record overall. The Panthers doubled their conference win total from the previous season, including a season-opening win over 2020 ACC Champion Florida State and a season sweep over North Carolina. Four of the top five scorers were underclassman with Champagnie becoming the first freshman since Charles Smith (1984-85) to lead the team in scoring and rebounds. Pitt ranked in the top 25 nationally in turnover margin and continued to establish an identity based on toughness, competitiveness and fight.

Capel led Pitt to an eight-game improvement in his first season guiding the Panthers, including wins over No. 11 Florida State, Louisville, and Notre Dame. With three freshmen - Xavier Johnson, Trey McGowens and Au'Diese Toney - in the starting lineup, Pitt established itself as a competitive and aggressive team on both ends of the floor. Johnson became the first Panther freshman to earn ACC All-Freshman Team honors, while setting Pitt rookie records for scoring (15.5 ppg.), 20-point games (nine), double-figure scoring games (28), and free throws made (157).

Capel spent seven seasons at Duke University (2011-18), including the final four seasons as associate head coach under Mike Krzyzewski. In that span, he helped guide the Blue Devils to a 200-55 (.784) record, seven NCAA Tournament appearances, the 2017 ACC Tournament championship and the 2015 National Championship. In that time, Capel also helped secure commitments from 19 McDonald's All-Americans as Duke signed a top-two class from 2014-18, including the top class in 2014, 2015 and 2018.

During the 2016-17 season, he served as acting head coach for seven games following Krzyzewski's back surgery. Capel led Duke to a 4-3 record over that stretch, including consecutive road wins at Wake Forest and Notre Dame that sparked a seven-game winning streak in the midst of ACC play. Capel also led the Blue Devils to an 89-71 win over Wake Forest during the 2017-18 season when Krzyzewski was sidelined due to an illness.

Capel was instrumental in the development of that young talent as the Blue Devils produced 15 first-round picks in the NBA Draft during his tenure, including nine lottery picks. Duke had at least one first-round selection every season and multiple first-round picks in five of the seven years with Capel on staff. Eight of the 19 McDonald's All-Americans Capel helped recruit to Duke were lottery picks.

In 2016-17, Capel was a major influence on Jayson Tatum, an All-ACC selection and the No. 3 overall choice in the NBA Draft by the Boston Celtics. In his final season at Duke, Capel mentored National Freshman of the Year and consensus first team All-America selection Marvin Bagley as well as All-ACC selections Wendell Carter, Jr. and Gary Trent, Jr. Capel also helped Duke secure one of the highest rated recruiting classes in NCAA history in 2018 as the Blue Devils signed the top three players in the class – R.J. Barrett, Cameron Reddish and Zion Williamson – along with two additional five-star players in Tre Jones and Joey Baker.

Capel was vital to the rapid ascent of Brandon Ingram from elite recruit to NBA lottery pick, helping mold him into a Freshman All-American and the ACC Freshman of the Year in 2016 before the Lakers took him with the No. 2 overall pick in that year's draft.

He was crucial to the signing of the 2014 class that was ranked No. 1 in the nation and featured Grayson Allen, Tyus Jones, Jahlil Okafor and Justise Winslow. That class was the catalyst for Duke's fifth national championship. Capel's close work with Jabari Parker (2014) and Okafor (2015) led to both being named All-Americans, earning National Freshman of the Year honors and being top-three picks in their respective NBA Drafts. Winslow and Jones were also taken 10th and 24th overall, respectively, in the 2015 NBA Draft.

Capel played a prominent role with USA Basketball during Krzyzewski's last four years as head coach of the U.S. National Team. After serving as a court coach and scout for the squad in 2013, Capel was a staff assistant for the USA's gold-medal effort at the 2014 FIBA World Cup in Spain and the United States' unprecedented run to a third consecutive gold medal at the 2016 Rio Olympics.

Capel also has head coaching experience with USA Basketball. In the summer of 2010, he led a USA team, featuring NBA All-Stars Kyrie Irving and Bradley Beal, to the gold medal at the FIBA Americas U18 Championship in San Antonio, Texas. He was also an assistant coach for the gold medal-winning U.S. team at the 2005 World University Games in Turkey.

While at OU, Capel led the Sooners to an 83-69 record with two NCAA Tournament berths. His crowning achievement in Norman was the development of 2009 National Player of the Year Blake Griffin, who became the first Oklahoma player to be taken No. 1 overall in the NBA Draft. Griffin won both NBA Rookie of the Year and the NBA Slam Dunk Contest in 2011.

During his tenure, Capel secured commitments from four McDonald's All-Americans: Blake Griffin, Willie Warren, Tiny Gallon and Tommy Mason-Griffin.

He saw four players - Blake Griffin, Taylor Griffin, Warren and Gallon - selected in the 2009 and 2010 NBA Drafts. Capel also recruited Romero Osby, who was selected in the second round of the 2013 NBA Draft, to Oklahoma.

In 2008-09, Capel led the Sooners to a 30-6 record and a trip to the NCAA Elite Eight. Oklahoma started the season 25-1 before Griffin was sidelined with a concussion in late February. The Sooners earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and posted wins over Morgan State, Michigan and Syracuse to reach the Elite Eight. Griffin would earn National Player of the Year, Big 12 Player of the Year and consensus first team All-America honors before declaring for the NBA Draft.

In just his second season, Capel guided Oklahoma to a 23-12 record and a trip to the 2008 NCAA Tournament. The Sooners topped St. Joseph's in the opening round before falling to third-seed Louisville in the round of 32. He saw freshman sensation Blake Griffin average 14.7 points and 9.1 rebounds per game en route to earning all-district, all-conference and all-rookie team honors.

Capel guided the Sooners to a 16-15 mark in his first season in Norman. With a depleted roster caused by the departure of three signees, Oklahoma got off to a solid start and was 15-7 overall before dropping its final seven games in conference play.

Capel compiled a 79-41 record, including a 50-22 mark in conference play, in four years as head coach at VCU before being named head coach at Oklahoma on April 11, 2006. He led the Rams to 18 or more wins in all four seasons to go along with a pair of postseason appearances.

In 2005-06, VCU posted a 19-10 record behind Nick George (16.9 ppg.) and B.A. Walker (11.7 ppg.). Future two-time CAA Player of the Year and NBA first round draft pick Eric Maynor was a freshman on the team as well.

VCU made its second postseason appearance under Capel in 2004-05 with an NIT appearance. The Rams went 19-13 overall and 13-5 in the CAA to finish tied for second. Following the season, Capel was named an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's World University Games. He helped guide the team led by head coach Jay Wright to the gold medal in Izmir, Turkey.

In 2003-04, Capel guided the Rams to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in almost a decade and nearly scored a first-round upset of fourth seeded Wake Forest. The Rams won the CAA regular season and tournament titles en route to a 23-8 record, including a 14-4 mark in conference play.

Senior guard Domonic Jones averaged 16.3 points and 4.4 rebounds per game to earn CAA Player of the Year honors, becoming just the second player in program history to claim the conference's top honor.

Capel was named head coach at VCU prior to the 2002-03 season, becoming the youngest head coach in Division I men's college basketball at 27 years of age. He led the Rams to an 18-10 mark and a tie for second place in the CAA in his inaugural season at the helm of the program.

Capel served as an assistant coach under Mack McCarthy at VCU during the 2001-02 season. The Rams went 21-11 overall and reached the title game of the CAA Tournament. McCarthy resigned following the season and Capel was immediately promoted to the head job.

Capel began his coaching career as an assistant to his father, Jeff Capel, at Old Dominion for the 2000-01 season. His father had a distinguished coaching career in the NBA with the Charlotte Bobcats (2004-11) and Philadelphia 76ers (2011-13), as well as in the college ranks at Wake Forest (1986-89), Fayetteville State (1989-93), North Carolina A&T (1993-94) and Old Dominion (1994-2001).

Following his collegiate career at Duke, Capel played professionally for two years. He spent the 1997-98 season with the CBA's Grand Rapids Hoops. In 1999-00, he played in France before returning to Grand Rapids.

Capel served as a team captain in both 1996 and 1997 and earned third team All-ACC accolades as a junior in 1996.

He made an immediate impact at Duke and was a four-year starter for the Blue Devils, leading the team to 83 wins and a trip to the 1994 national championship game. He racked up 1,601 points, 433 assists and 220 three-point field goals, finishing among Duke's career leaders in minutes played, three-point field goals made, three-point field goal percentage and assists.

A standout prep performer, Capel was named the 1993 North Carolina High School Player of the Year after leading Fayetteville South View to a 31-1 record and a state championship.

Capel graduated from Duke with a B.A. in history in 1997. He and his wife, Kanika, married in 2003. They have two daughters, Cameron and Sydney, and a son, Elijah.

TIM O'TOOLE

Associate Head Coach
Seventh Season at Pitt (32nd Overall)

Tim O'Toole enters his seventh season at Pitt as associate head coach. With 32 years of Division I coaching experience, including eight years as a head coach, his wealth of knowledge and passion has helped lead 11 teams to postseason play.

O'Toole's impact has been felt immediately at Pitt as his tireless energy on the bench and on the recruiting trail have helped Jeff Capel rebuild and revitalize the Pitt program.

Last season, O'Toole helped the center tandem of Federiko Federiko and Guillermo Diaz Graham continue to grow their games. The duo combined for 11.4 points and 9.1 rebounds per game, while adding 71 blocks and 44 steals. Diaz Graham delivered 6.7 points per game, while making 32 three-pointers on 40.5 percent shooting from beyond the arc. Federiko shot an efficient 63.7 percent from the field, while also ranking among the league leaders in blocks and offensive rebounds. Despite injuries depleting Pitt's post rotations, the Panthers finished the year as one of the top rebounding teams in the ACC and was also the only team in the conference to have three players finish among the conference block shot leaders.

O'Toole oversaw the development and rapid growth of a young frontcourt that helped propel the Panthers to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2022-23. With its most experienced post player appearing in just eight games, Federiko and Guillermo Diaz Graham emerged as a potent center combo. Federiko developed into one of the top defensive centers in the ACC ranking third in the conference in blocks (1.66 bpg.), while also averaging 6.6 points and 5.3 rebounds per game. He shot 66.7 percent (94-of-141) from the field to become just the fourth player (five times) in program history to shoot 60 percent or better from the field in a season. As a team, the Panthers closed the season ranked in the top four of the ACC in scoring defense (69.7 ppg.), field goal percentage defense (.420), three-point percentage defense (.327), rebounds (36.14 rpg.), and defensive rebounds (26.03 pg.).

During the 2021-22 campaign, sophomore John Hugley IV emerged as one of the top post players in the ACC under O'Toole tutelage. Hugley IV earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors while ranking among the league leaders in scoring, rebounds, offensive rebounds, free throws made and free throw attempts. As a team, the Panthers ranked second in the ACC in opponent rebounds (31.1 rpg.) and fourth in rebound margin (+2.8 rpg.).

In 2020-21, with O'Toole guiding Pitt's post play, the Panthers were one of the top rebounding teams in the ACC. Pitt finished second in the league in rebounds (38.3 rpg.), rebound margin (+5.18 rpg.), offensive rebounds (12.79 orpg.) and offensive rebounds percentage (.345). The Panthers primary post players combined to average 12.8 points and 10.9 rebounds per game.

O'Toole mentored a post trio of Eric Hamilton, Terrell Brown and Abdoul Karim Coulibaly that combined to average 12.6 points, 9.6 rebounds and 2.2 blocks per game. Brown ranked in the top 10 of the ACC in blocks for the second consecutive season.

O'Toole helped lead the development of Brown during the 2018-19 season as the 6-10 post averaged 12.0 points, 9.5 rebounds and 3.8 blocks per 40 minutes of game action. Brown set a Pitt record with nine blocked shots in a win over Colgate and finished the year ranked in the top five of the ACC in blocks per game (1.8 bpg.).

Prior to coming to Pitt, O'Toole spent two seasons as associate head coach at Cal. In 2017-18, he was vital to the development of big man Marcus Lee, who averaged 11.4 points, 7.2 rebounds and 1.6 blocks per game in his first season of eligibility at Cal.

In his first season in Berkeley, O'Toole helped guide Cal to the Pac-12's best field goal defense and top scoring defense. He was crucial in the development of Cal's frontcourt, including single-season blocks leader Kingsley Okoroh and Kameron Rooks as well as 2017 NBA second round selection Ivan Rabb. His post player development along with expert zone defensive strategies helped bring Cal back to the postseason play.

From 2013-2016, O'Toole served as an assistant coach at Stanford where his strength in player development helped Chasson Randle, Anthony Brown, Josh Huestis and Dwight Powell reach the NBA. In addition, his work helped key Stanford's 2014 Sweet 16 run and carry the Cardinal to the 2015 NIT Championship.

O'Toole's infectious energy, enthusiasm and expert instruction also aided in the player recruitment and development of McDonald's All-American Reid Travis, Michael Humphrey, and Josh Sharma, who continue their play in Europe.

O'Toole, who prides himself on player and team success, has established a reputation as a strong in-game tactician. He has coached alongside two of the winningest coaches in NCAA history in NABC College Basketball Hall of Fame inductees Mike Krzyzewski and Jim Boeheim.

After a six-year stint as an ESPN, SNY and IMG analyst and color commentator, O'Toole re-entered the coaching realm with a second term at Syracuse for the 2012-13 season, helping the Orange to the 2013 Final Four.

O'Toole first served on the Orange staff in 1991-1995 as an assistant coach. During his initial tenure, Syracuse appeared in three NCAA Tournaments and captured the 1992 Big East Championship. In his combined five years of coaching at Syracuse he worked with many basketball standouts including John Wallace, Lawrence Moten, Dave Johnson, Michael Carter Williams, Jerami Grant, Rakeem Christmas, CJ Fair, and James Southerland all of whom continued on to play in the NBA or overseas.

O'Toole also possesses head coaching experience, spending eight seasons (1998-2006) at the helm of his alma mater, Fairfield. He led the Stags to three consecutive winning seasons for the first time since 1978, earned an NIT berth in 2003, and guided numerous players to post graduate play. O'Toole was honored as the 2003-04 MAAC Coach of the Year and enjoyed the best recruiting classes in school history.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Fairfield, O'Toole spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant coach under Tommy Amaker at Seton Hall. He helped guide the Pirates to a third place finish in the Big East and an NIT bid.

O'Toole also spent two years at Duke as an assistant coach to Krzyzewski, coaching Jeff Capel, as well as bringing in the number one recruiting class in the country with Elton Brand, Shane Battier, William Avery, and Chris Burgess. He helped lead the Blue Devils to the 1997 ACC title, while working alongside coaches Quin Snyder of the Utah Jazz and Amaker now at Harvard.

A native of White Plans, N.Y., O'Toole's coaching career began with stops as an assistant coach at Iona (1990-91) and Army (1989-90) after serving as a graduate assistant at Fordham University from 1987-89.

O'Toole earned his bachelor's degree in economics and political science from Fairfield in 1987 and his MBA in finance from Fordham in 1990. Both degrees were put to use in financial planning as Managing Director for Look Capital, an investment management company, as President of Allied Effort, a motivational consulting company, and as an adjunct professor at Fordham's Graduate School of Business teaching management, leadership, and sales courses.

Honored as the Fairfield Male Athlete of the Year in 1987, O'Toole was a four-year letterwinner in basketball, leading the Stags to a pair of MAAC championship titles and back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances. He also competed for the lacrosse team going undefeated in 1987.

O'Toole has received numerous honors and awards including CT Multiple Sclerosis 2005 Person of the Year. In 2004, he was inducted into the Westchester County Sports Hall of Fame and he was a 2008 inductee into the Archbishop Stepinac High School Hall of Fame. In 2017, O'Toole was inducted into the Fairfield Hall of Fame.

O'Toole and his wife, Joanie, have three children: Collin, Jameson and Christine.

MILAN BROWN

Associate Head Coach
Seventh Season at Pitt (30th Overall)

Milan Brown is in his seventh season at the University of Pittsburgh after spending three seasons at the College of Charleston. He was elevated to associate head coach status prior to the start of the 2021-22 season. Brown has more than 25 years of coaching experience, including 12 seasons as a head coach.

Last season, a trio of guard newcomers helped propel the Panthers to another 20+ win season. The threesome of Carlton Carrington, Ishmael Leggett, and Jaland Lowe combined to average 35.7 points,13.5 rebounds, and 9.3 assists per game with 63 double-figure scoring games. Carrington and Lowe formed one of the best freshmen backcourts in the country, while Leggett showcased a strong all-around game en route to earning ACC Sixth Man of the Year accolades. Carrington burst onto the college scene with a triple-double in the season opener and went on to average 13.8 points, 5.2 rebounds, and 4.1 assists per game, while making 65 three-point field goals. He garnered ACC All-Rookie Team and Honorable Mention All-ACC honors and was a five-time conference Rookie of the Week and two-time national Freshman of the Week selection. Carrington entered the 2024 NBA Draft and was selected No. 14 overall by the Washington Wizards. Lowe was slowed in non-conference play by a preseason injury but dazzled in league play with 12.0 points, 3.2 rebounds, and 3.7 assists per game. His outstanding play earned him offseason invites to prestigious CP3 and Nike Elite Camps as well as recognition as a breakout player to watch in 2024-25. Leggett averaged 12.3 points per game to go along with team highs in rebounds (5.5 rpg.) and steals (41) to give Pitt the ACC Sixth Man of the Year for the second consecutive season. He also grabbed Second Team ACC All-Tournament Team recognition following a season-high 30-point effort in a quarterfinal win over Wake Forest.

Under the mentorship of Brown, Pitt's guard play was a big reason for the team's return to the NCAA Tournament in 2023. With a seasoned group of veterans in Jamarius Burton, Nelly Cummings, Greg Elliott, and Nike Sibande, the Panthers were one of four programs with four or more players with over 140 games played. The backcourt quartet completed their careers with a combined 5,915 points in 596 career games. Burton garnered First Team All-ACC and USBWA District 2 honors after becoming just the fourth player at Pitt to average at least 15.0 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 4.0 assists per game in a season. Cummings finished fourth in the ACC in assists (4.75 apg.) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.19:1), while also averaging 11.1 points per game and making 61 three-pointers. Elliott shot a team-high 41.6 percent (77-of-186) from three-point range, second best in the ACC among players with 2.0 made threes per game, while averaging 10.4 points and 4.0 rebounds per game. Sibande grabbed ACC Sixth Man of the Year honors after starring in his role as Pitt's top reserve. Brown was also the recipient of the 18th annual Bob Bradley Spirit and Courage Award from the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSMA) and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

During the 2021-22 season, Brown was instrumental in the development of transfer Jamarius Burton, while also holding together a backcourt that featured just one scholarship player for a period of time due to injuries and suspension. Burton averaged a career-best 12.4 points per game, while also finishing second in the ACC in free throw percentage (.880).

In 2020-21, Pitt guard rotation finished as four of the top six scorers on the team. Ithiel Horton led the team in three-point field goals (43), while averaging 8.9 points per game. Freshman Femi Odukale came on strong at the end of the season averaging 13.6 points, 4.0 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game over the final five contests, while Sibande delivered 15.0 points and 6.2 rebounds per game over that same stretch.

In 2019-20, Brown mentored a backcourt that featured two of the top three scorers on the team. Sophomore Xavier Johnson was one of four players in the ACC to average at least 10.0 points, 3.5 rebounds and 4.5 assists per game, while also ranking among the leaders in assists, assist-to-turnover ratio and steals.

In his first season at Pitt, Brown was instrumental in the development of the Panthers' young backcourt tandem of Johnson and Trey McGowens. The duo combined to average 27.1 points per game, 7.1 rebounds, 6.2 assists and 3.2 steals per game. Johnson started all 33 games and was the only player in the ACC to average better than 15.0 points and 4.5 assists per game, while McGowens posted a pair of 30-point games in ACC play.

Brown joined head coach Earl Grant's staff at the College of Charleston in the summer of 2015 and helped the program to a 68-32 record with two postseason appearances. The Cougars went 26-8 in 2017-18 and won the CAA regular season and tournament championships before falling to Auburn, 62-58, in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. He was instrumental in the development of Jarrell Brantley, who wwa selected with the 50th pick in the 2019 NBA Draft by Utah.

Brown spent the previous 12 seasons as the head coach at Holy Cross (2010-15) and Mount St. Mary's (2003-10), compiling a 164-203 record with three postseason appearances and a trip to the 2008 NCAA Tournament.

In 2014-15, Holy Cross upset No. 25 Harvard in non-conference play to mark the program's first win over a ranked team since 1977. The Crusaders' top player, Malcolm Miller, graduated and played with the Boston Celtics' summer league team before NBA G-League stints with the Maine Red Claws and Raptors 905. Miller signed with Toronto for a second time in 2019 and went on to win an NBA Championship with the Raptors that year.

During the 2013-14 campaign, Brown led Holy Cross to a 20-14 record and its first 20-win season since 2007. The Crusaders placed third in the Patriot League with a 12-6 conference mark and received an invitation to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. Holy Cross' 68-65 victory at Brown in the first round of the 2014 CIT was its first in a national postseason tournament since 2005.

Holy Cross compiled an overall record of 15-14 and a fourth-place finish in the Patriot League with a 9-5 mark in league play during the 2011-12 season. During his first year with the Crusaders, Brown led the squad to a third place finish in the Patriot League.

Prior to his time at Holy Cross, Brown spent seven seasons as head coach at Mount St. Mary's. During his final three years with the Mountaineers, he led his squad to three consecutive winning seasons and a pair of postseason appearances. Brown's teams posted a 54-44 record (.551) during those three years, including a 35-19 mark (.648) in Northeast Conference play.

Defense was a staple of Brown's squads, as the Mountaineers allowed 64.7 points per game over a three-year span from 2007-10, while holding their opposition to under 70 points in 72 out of 98 games.

In 2009-10, Brown's Mount St. Mary's team posted an overall record of 16-15 and finished third in the NEC with a 12-6 mark. The Mountaineers posted an 11-game winning streak, the second-longest streak in the school's Division I history, and advanced to the semifinals of the NEC Tournament.

A year prior, Brown's squad went 19-14 overall and 12-6 in the NEC, placing second in the league. The Mountaineers advanced to the NEC championship game and was selected to play in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

During the 2007-08 campaign, Brown led the Mountaineers to their first winning record in 11 seasons, posting a 19-15 overall mark. Mount St. Mary's finished the regular season fourth in the NEC with an 11-7 league record before running off three consecutive victories to claim the NEC Tournament title. The Mountaineers then took down Coppin State (69-60) in the NCAA opening round for the first NCAA Division I Tournament victory in school history.

Brown took over as the head coach at Mount St. Mary's in 2003-04 and led his team to its first NEC Tournament appearance since 1999 during his inaugural campaign. By his third year 2005-06, the Mountaineers finished fourth in the conference with an 11-7 record – their highest finish in the league since 1996-97.

Following the 2005-06 campaign, Brown was selected as the Northeast Conference's Coach of the Year by College Insider.

Before his head coaching stints, Brown twice served as an assistant under Jim Phelan. He was the associate head coach at Mount St. Mary's during the 2002-03 campaign and an assistant coach from 1997-2000. During the 1998-99 season, Brown helped lead the Mountaineers to the NEC Tournament crown and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

From 2000-02, Brown was an assistant coach at William & Mary under Rick Boyages. He previously served as an assistant under Jeff Capel II at Old Dominion from 1995-97, helping lead the Monarchs to a combined record of 40-24 over two seasons. In 1996-97, ODU won both the CAA regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Brown began his coaching career in 1994-95 as an assistant at Kecoughtan High School in Hampton, Va., where he helped lead the team to a 23-7 record and the state championship.

A 1993 graduate of Howard University with a bachelor's degree in marketing, Brown earned All-MEAC honors his senior year after averaging 13.1 points and 4.4 assists per game. He still ranks second on the Bison's all-time career list for assists (445) and scored 1,102 points in his career.

Brown led Howard to the MEAC regular-season and tournament titles during the 1991-92 season, earning All-MEAC Tournament honors. He was then named the CBS Player of the Game for the Bison's contest with Kansas in the 1992 NCAA Tournament. Brown had his number retired at Howard in December of 2005.

The son of Charles and Pamela Brown, he is the oldest of three children. His brother, Morocco, played football at NC State and is the Chief Personnel Executive for the Indianapolis Colts. His other brother, Marseilles, played basketball at both Richmond and Hampton, advancing to the NCAA Tournament at each school. He is now the owner of Hoops & Life Pro Skills Training in Columbia, S.C.

Originally from Hampton, Va., Brown and his wife, Tina, are the proud parents of two daughters, Nyla and Sanaa.

JASON CAPEL

Assistant Coach
Seventh Season at Pitt (12th Overall)

Jason Capel is in his seventh season as an assistant coach at Pitt and his 12th season in the Division I coaching ranks, including a four-year run as head coach at Appalachian State. Capel, the younger brother of Pitt head coach Jeff Capel, also spent three seasons as a college basketball television analyst for ESPN, the ACC Network and Raycom Sports.

Last season, Capel continue to foster the development of Pitt's wings with veteran Blake Hinson shining in the final season with the Panthers. Hinson grabbed First Team All-ACC and NABC Second Team All-District 2 honors after leading the ACC in three-point field goals (3.33 3pg.) and three-point percentage (.421), while also ranking among the league leaders in scoring (3rd - 18.5 ppg.) and field goal percentage (13th - .454). He set a school record with 110 threes and also made a school record nine threes in a game twice during the 2023-24 season. Capel also Zack Austin deliver a productive season for the Panthers after joining the program as a transfer. Austin averaged 6.5 points, 4.2 rebounds, and 1.3 blocks in just under 23 minutes a game, while electrifying the crowd with his athleticism on both ends of the floor. The versatility of Pitt's wings helped generate an offensive attack that led the league in threes per game (9.6 3pg.) as well as anchor a defensive unit that ranked among the league leaders in blocks and rebounding.

Capel played an integral role in the recruitment and development of the 2022-23 roster, including Second Team All-ACC selection Blake Hinson. Hinson went on to earn CollegeInsider.com Transfer of the Year accolades after leading the Panthers in scoring (15.3 ppg.), rebounds (6.0 rpg.), and three-pointers (97) in his first season at Pitt. Capel was also instrumental in the development of Jorge Diaz Graham who established himself as an exciting spark plug off the bench for the Panthers. The added shooting from the forward position played a significant role in Pitt's NCAA Tournament run and 24-win season. The Panthers set a school record for three-point field goals (325) and became one of the hardest teams to guard in the ACC with excellent floor spacing and lethal three-point shooting.

In 2021-22, Capel spearheaded the development of transfer forward Mouhamadou Gueye, Gueye averaged 9.8 points, 6.3 rebounds and 2.1 blocks per game and was one of just five players in the NCAA to make 40 or more three-point field goals and block 60 or more shots. He was also the first player in program history to lead the team in three-point field goals and blocks in the same season.

In 2020-21, Capel helped developed Pitt's wings into a unit that combined to average over 30 points and 20 rebounds per game with First Team All-ACC performer Justin Champagnie leading the way at 18.0 points and 11.1 rebounds per game. Champagnie scored in double figures in all 20 games played and became the first Pitt player since DeJuan Blair (2008-09) to average a double-double. He was also the only major conference player to average a double-double for the 2020-21 season.

In 2019-20, Capel was instrumental in the development of freshman Justin Champagnie and sophomore Au'Diese Toney. Champagnie averaged 12.7 points and 7.0 rebounds per game to become the first Pitt freshman since Charles Smith (1984-85) to lead the team in scoring and rebounds. He finished the year in the top five of the freshman record books in points, points per game, double-figure scoring games, 20+ point games, 30+ point games, field goals, field goal attempts, three-point field goal attempts, rebounds, double-figure rebounding games, minutes played and minutes per game. Toney continued to show the ability to be one of the top wing defenders in the ACC, while also becoming more efficient on the offensive end of the floor. He closed the year averaging 9.5 points and 4.8 assists per game, while shooting 46.1 percent from the field.

In 2018-19, Capel began mentoring the versatile Toney. The 6-6 wing player went on to average 7.5 points and a team-high 5.6 rebounds per game, while often playing the power forward position for the Panthers.

Capel became the youngest head coach in the NCAA April 21, 2010, when he was introduced as the head coach at Appalachian State. He went on to post one winning season and was 53-70 overall in four seasons at the helm of the program.

In 2010-11, Capel led the Mountaineers to a 16-15 record, including a 10-8 mark and a third place finish in the Southern Conference North Division. He also guided Appalachian State to a 10-8 conference mark and a tie for second finish in 2013.

In his only season as an assistant coach, Capel helped lead the Mountaineers to the second-most victories in school history (24), their first Southern Conference Tournament title-game appearance since 2000 and a berth in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT), only their fourth postseason appearance since joining the NCAA Division I ranks in 1973. Appalachian State's CIT wins over Harvard and Marshall, which earned it a berth in the tournament's semifinals, were the first DI postseason victories in school history.

Following the conclusion of his playing career, he spent two years as a college basketball analyst for ESPNU and Raycom Sports before joining ASU's staff prior to the 2009-10 season.

Capel is a member of one of college basketball's most distinguished coaching families. His late father, Jeff, compiled a 201-163 record with three NCAA Tournament appearances in 12 seasons as head coach at Old Dominion, North Carolina A&T and Fayetteville State prior to moving to the professional ranks with the NBA's Charlotte Bobcats and Philadelphia 76ers.

His brother, Jeff, has put together an impressive coaching resume that includes a 237-191 record and four NCAA Tournament appearances, including an Elite Eight trip in 2008, as a head coach at VCU and Oklahoma.

After graduating from North Carolina with a B.A. in communication in 2002, Capel embarked on a professional playing career, which included successful stints in the NBA Developmental League and leagues in Japan, Italy and Serbia. In his first season as a pro, he averaged 11.3 points and 3.7 rebounds per game to help lead the NBDL's Fayetteville Patriots, where he was coached by his father, Jeff, to a league-best 32-18 record and a D-League Finals appearance.

Capel first burst on to the national scene as a star forward at North Carolina from 1998-2002, where he was a two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection (2001 and '02) and the Tar Heels' leader in scoring (15.6 ppg.), rebounds (8.6 rpg.) and steals (29) as a senior. He helped lead UNC to the Final Four in 2000, recorded the second triple-double in UNC history with 16 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists against Buffalo during the 2000-01 season and was a candidate for 2002 Wooden Award, which is presented annually to college basketball's most outstanding player.

A native of Fayetteville, N.C., Capel was a McDonald's All-American and ranked as high as the nation's No. 5 high-school player after concluding his prep career at St. John's at Prospect Hall (Frederick, Md.), where he helped lead his team to the USA Today National Championship in 1998.

He spent his freshman and sophomore years at Indian River High School in Chesapeake, Va., where he was named Virginia's Player of the Year as a sophomore. He began his prep career as an eighth-grader, when he made the varsity team at Greensboro Day School while his father was head coach at N.C. A&T.

Capel and his wife, Ashley, reside in Cranberry with their three sons, Myles, Jayce and Cole.

BRIAN REGAN

Director of Basketball Operations
18th Season at Pitt (35th Overall)

Brian Regan returned to the role of Director of Basketball Operations prior to the 2018-19 season after spending two years at Pitt as the Director of Event Management and Camps and Clinics. He is in his 18th season as a member of the basketball staff and his 20th year with the athletic department.

Regan's various responsibilities include managing the day-to-day operations of the program, including logistics of team practices, meals and meetings. He assists the coaching staff with scheduling and is heavily involved in developing the team's itinerary for all road games. Regan also runs the program's summer camps and has direct oversight of the Pitt student-manager team.

Regan has coordinated Pitt's foreign tours to Italy (2019) and Spain (2023) for 60-person travel parties. The Panthers visited Rome, Florence, Bologna and Venice and won all three games during the trip in 2019. The 2023 trip included a stop in the Canary Islands, where twins Guillermo and Jorge Diaz Graham are from, and Barcelona.

Under Regan's leadership from 2016-18, the athletic department developed a camp manual for its year-round youth camps owned and operated by the team coaches. He was also the event manager for swimming and diving, softball, wrestling and women's tennis. Regan directed facility projects in the Petersen Events Center, where he developed and implemented a design plan for the men's and women's basketball hallway project.

Regan returned to the University of Pittsburgh in August of 2007 to join Jamie Dixon's staff as the Video Coordinator. A year later, he was promoted to Director of Men's Basketball Operations, a position that he held until being promoted to Assistant Athletic Director of Men's Basketball Operations in 2013. During that span, the Panthers had one of their most successful runs with a 223-93 record and nine postseason appearances, including two No. 1 seeds in the NCAA Tournament (2009 and 2011). Pitt made an Elite Eight appearance in 2009 and also captured the 2008 Big East Tournament title, the 2011 Big East Regular Season title and the 2012 CBI Tournament Championship. In his first stint at Pitt, Regan served as head coach Paul Evans' graduate assistant from 1988-1990 when the Panthers appeared in the 1989 NCAA Tournament.

Regan's previous work with the men's basketball program internally included reporting directly to the Athletic Director for all matters relating to the men's basketball program. This included the two million dollar basketball suite renovations for both the men's and women's basketball teams. He assisted with the national recruiting effort, planning of player development, practice planning and game scouting preparation. He was the supervisor of the program's student managers, graduate assistants and student workers. He also researched and implemented the basketball programs video editing systems.

Externally, Regan organized Pitt's foreign tours to both Ireland (2010) and the Bahamas (2014) as well as the 2015 Armed Forces Classic game against Gonzaga in Okinawa, Japan. He was the liaison for NBA teams, the player summer league and directed the highly successful summer basketball camps.

Prior to his return to the University of Pittsburgh, Regan spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. During that time, he directed the national recruiting effort and served as the program's academic coordinator. Working primarily with the post players, Regan coached three all-conference performers.

Regan also served as the associate head coach and assistant to the Athletic Director at Assumption College for three seasons. In 2002, the Greyhounds won the NE10 regular-season title and went to the Sweet Sixteen, finishing the season 24-6.

Regan went to Assumption after serving as the assistant basketball coach at several Pittsburgh colleges including Slippery Rock (1994-99), LaRoche College (1993-94), and Robert Morris (1990-93). In 1992, Robert Morris captured the Northeast Conference regular season and conference tournament titles to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

A 1988 graduate of St. Vincent College in Latrobe, Pa., with a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications, Regan served as a student assistant to head coach Bernie Matthews. During his college years, Regan started and developed his own basketball camps at Pittsburgh area high schools.

Regan resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Catherine, and their two children, Sophia and Brendan.

Sports Dietitian
First Season at Pitt

Dolapo Balogun, MA, RDN, LDN, joined the University of Pittsburgh Department of Athletics in August 2024 as a Sports Dietitian. Balogun works with the men's and women's basketball teams at Pitt, providing one-on-one nutrition counseling, body composition testing, supplement education, travel nutrition support, and team talks, among other duties. She directly oversees the fueling stations for both teams to ensure proper pre- and post-practice and competition fueling.

Before joining Pitt, Balogun served as a Performance Dietitian at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Florida. There, she managed the nutrition needs of over 300 student-athletes across 18 basketball teams and 7 girls' soccer teams, including the boys' and girls' national basketball teams that competed in the Chipotle Nationals. She planned and facilitated weekly nutrition workshops for groups of 30 or more, designed and implemented a 10-month nutrition curriculum, and delivered one-on-one sessions to create nutrition plans for a diverse range of athletes, from youth to elite and professional levels, across various sports, cultures, and countries. Additionally, she provided live coaching at practices and managed the logistics of travel nutrition.

Prior to her time at IMG, Dolapo served as the Director of Basketball Operations at her alma mater, the University of San Francisco. Her responsibilities included managing team travel logistics, facilitating business relationships with hotels, venues, airlines, vendors, organizations, and restaurants, and serving as the liaison between the Women's Basketball program and Athletic Administration. She also oversaw the team's budgets, collaborated with coaches on recruiting, and assisted on the court to prepare the team for games. Her unique skill set allowed her to act as the team's dietitian, counseling 15 basketball student-athletes and tailoring their nutrition plans to enhance performance.

Balogun's background is rooted in basketball. She was a student-athlete at Roselle Catholic High School, Southeast Missouri State University, and the University of San Francisco. As a scholar-athlete, she volunteered to provide nutrition education to her fellow student-athletes and played a key role in establishing the Redhawk Fuel Station at SEMO. Balogun completed her dietetic internship at the prestigious University of San Diego, Health, where she became the first African American to graduate from the program in 2022.

MIKE FARABAUGH

Director of Academic Support
34th Season at Pitt

Mike Farabaugh joined the University of Pittsburgh Academic Support Services for Student-Athletes unit in 1989. As Director, Farabaugh oversees the operation of the academic support program that assists the academic and personal development of nearly 500 student-athletes. Farabaugh and the unit also serve as the liaison between the academic and athletic communities concerning the needs and interests of the student-athletes.

The unit functions under the office of the Provost and as such, Farabaugh provides direct support to that office on behalf of the Academic Support unit, working closely on matters that impact student-athlete development, support and budgeting issues that impact the department.

His career in Academic Support began in 1989-90 as a graduate student, overseeing the math program for the unit and providing direct tutorial support to our student-athletes. After a two year stint as a graduate assistant, Farabaugh moved into a permanent role in the department as a learning skills specialist for the unit. He oversaw the development of the math and science programming for the unit, hiring, training and mentoring the tutors in those subject areas as well as providing direct tutorial support to the student-athletes.

In his current capacity as director, Farabaugh serves as an academic counselor for the men's basketball team and also provides support to the football team, offering the necessary services and resources to the student-athletes and coaches.

A 1987 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Farabaugh went on to complete his Master's degree in 1992. In addition to his duties at the University, Farabaugh has also served on the Learning Disabilities committee, Two Year-College committee and Research committee with the National Association of Academic Advisors.

Administrative Assistant
26th Season at Pitt

Beth Schoedel joined the Athletic Department at University of Pittsburgh in October of 1999 as the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team. She has helped manage agendas for four head coaches including Ben Howland, Jamie Dixon, Kevin Stallings and presently Jeff Capel, as well as events and activities for their teams and staff.

Schoedel has 30 years of administrative experience and has taken multiple business classes through Community College of Allegheny County.

A Pittsburgh native, Schoedel resides in the North Hills area with her husband, Doug.

DANIEL ANTHONY

Athletic Trainer
Fourth Season at Pitt

Daniel Anthony joined the University of Pittsburgh sports medicine staff July 2021 and oversees the men's basketball team.

Prior to Pitt, Anthony was an associate athletic trainer for five years for the men's basketball and golf teams at the University of Rhode Island. He spent one season with the Golden State Warriors as an athletic trainer and began as an intern assistant athletic trainer for the University of Missouri's football and softball teams.

A native of Kansas City, Mo., Anthony graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise and Movement Science at Missouri State University in August of 2011. He obtained a Masters of Athletic Training from Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in May 2014.

Anthony is a BOC certified athletic trainer. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and College Athletic Trainers' Society (CATS) and has certifications in FAKTR. He has also participated in seminars for the Postural Restoration Institute.

JENNIFER BROWN

Sr. Associate AD / Sports Medicine
Seventh Season at Pitt

Jennifer Brown joined the University of Pittsburgh athletic department in 2018 and serves as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Sports Medicine and Performance. In this role, Brown advocates for the health and well-being of all Pitt Panther student-athletes, as well as serving as the Athletics Health Care Administrator. She is also the sport administrator for the Pitt track and field program and previously filled that role with women's lacrosse.

Brown oversees the Sports Medicine, Sports Nutrition and Strength & Conditioning departments and is the on-site coordinator of mental health services for all 19 of the University of Pittsburgh's sports. She serves as liaison to the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, the Western Psychiatric Institute, and the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences Program. Under Brown's guidance, the Pitt Sports Medicine Team has grown to include 19 full-time athletic trainers, three seasonal athletic trainers, two dual-credentialed physical therapists and two clinical counselors. Together with the team physicians, Brown played a key role in navigating Pitt Athletics safely through the Covid-19 pandemic, working closely with the University of Pittsburgh, the Atlantic Coast Conference and the NCAA to develop appropriate policies and procedures for the Pitt community. She also is the co-chair of the planning committee for the annual ACC Health & Safety Summit.

In her first three years at the University of Pittsburgh, as Director of Sports Medicine, Brown provided direct clinical athletic training services for the Panther men's basketball program.

Brown came to Pitt after spending three years as the head athletic trainer at Eastern Michigan where she held the role of Athletics Health Care Administrator and was responsible for the daily sports medicine operation of the Eagles' twenty-one sports. She managed the relationship with University of Michigan Health System physicians, supervised four assistant athletic trainers, numerous graduate and student athletic trainers, a mental health counselor, a dietician and held primary healthcare responsibilities and oversight of their football team. During her time in Ypsilanti, Brown's accomplishments included substantive improvements to the baseline testing and concussion management protocol, implementation of a mental health screening tool and development of the mental health treatment program, transitioning to EMU's first electronic medical records system and a complete re-design of the department's secondary insurance business model.

DR. JEANNE DOPERAK

Team Physician
15th Season at Pitt

An Assistant Professor at the University of Pittsburgh in the Department of Orthopaedics, Dr. Jeanne Doperak serves as a team physician with the University of Pittsburgh Athletic Department and Carnegie Mellon University. Doperak begins her 11th year working with the Pitt men's basketball team.

She also serves as a consultant for several area high schools, along with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In addition to her clinical duties, Dr. Doperak is the Fellowship Director of the St. Margaret's Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship Program and is the physician representative on the board of directors of the Big East Conference Sports Medicine Society.

Dr. Doperak earned her bachelor's degree in biology from Allegheny College and completed her medical training at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. She then completed a residence in family medicine at Latrobe Hospital and pursued a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Pittsburgh.

A Western Pennsylvania native, Dr. Doperak was born and raised in Latrobe, Pa. She is still happy to call Pittsburgh home with her husband, Rob, and their two children, Abby and Max.

DR. BRYSON LESNIAK

Head Team Physician
11th Season at Pitt

Dr. Bryson P. Lesniak is an Associate Clinical Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery in the Division of Sports Medicine. Previously, he earned his medical degree at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine in 2003 and completed an orthopedic surgery residency at the University of Michigan Health System. Lesniak obtained fellowship training in sports medicine in the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center.

Upon completion of post-graduate training in 2009, Dr. Lesniak was appointed Assistant Professor in the Department of Orthopedics at the University of Miami, Miller School of Medicine. While at the University of Miami, he was the Fellowship Director of the Sports Medicine program. He is board-certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgeons with a subspecialty certification in Sports Medicine.

Dr. Lesniak has received several sports medicine awards for his clinical research, including The O'Donoghue Sports Medicine Injury Award in 2010. He is a member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgery, American Orthopaedic Society of Sports Medicine, Arthroscopy Association of North America, Major League Baseball Physicians Association, and the International Cartilage Repair Society. Dr. Lesniak served on numerous committees while at the University of Miami, Miller School of Medicine and was also active in the community. He was a team physician for University of Miami athletics as well as the Miami Marlins baseball franchise and several South Florida high schools.

Dr. Lesniak's primary office is at the UPMC Sports Medicine Center, South Side, and he also sees patients at UPMC South Hills. His clinical emphasis is in Sports Medicine with special emphasis on articular cartilage and articular cartilage injury; anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) injury; knee kinematics; injuries in professional and college athletes; applications of stem cells in sports medicine; rotator cuff injury and treatment; and shoulder instability and treatment.

Dr. Lesniak is a native of Pittsburgh who attended Schenley High School prior to pursuing his undergraduate studies at Pennsylvania State University.

ALLEN GREENE

Director of Athletics

Highly accomplished and nationally respected college athletics administrator Allen Greene was appointed Director of Athletics at the University of Pittsburgh by Chancellor Joan Gabel on Oct. 18, 2024.

"Pitt Athletics is the front porch of the University of Pittsburgh, serving as a crucial access point for so many across our campus, our region, our nation and the world," said Gabel. "In Allen Greene, we have a proven national leader who exemplifies the Pitt way, and who has all of the experience and intangibles to elevate our athletics program in competition and in the classroom. In my conversations with Allen and with many others who know him well, it is clear that he will lead us successfully into the new world of intercollegiate athletics."

"On behalf of Pitt Athletics, I would like to welcome Allen Greene and his family to the University of Pittsburgh," said Jeff Capel, head coach of Pitt men's basketball, who served on the advisory committee. "I also want to thank and congratulate Chancellor Gabel on an excellent search process. Allen brings to Pitt an outstanding reputation as an innovative leader who is personally invested in the student-athletes and staff under his watch. His impressive administrative experience will be a tremendous asset not only for our athletics department but also the entire University. We greatly look forward to his arrival on campus."

Greene has been a lead figure in the management of name, image and likeness (NIL) programs at three separate Southeastern Conference (SEC) institutions, including most recently at the University of Tennessee, where he has served as senior deputy athletics director since December 2023. He has played an integral role in the athletics department's over 30% increase in annual revenue. Prior to his tenure with the Volunteers, he served a year at the University of Mississippi as senior deputy athletics director for external relations and business development.

From 2018 and 2022, Greene served as Director of Athletics at Auburn University, where his record of success included eight SEC championships and 47 programs achieving Top 25 finishes in national rankings.

In 2021-22 alone, six Auburn athletic programs finished in the nation's Top 10. During his tenure, the Auburn men's basketball team earned the first No. 1 national ranking in program history and advanced to its first Final Four; the baseball team returned to the College World Series for the first time in 22 years; the equestrian team won two national championships; and student-athlete grade-point averages rose to a combined 3.25. Auburn Athletics also welcomed its four largest individual donations ever, and the Woltosz Football Performance Center—a $92 million football facility that stands as the largest athletics project in Auburn history—was constructed.

Prior to Auburn, Greene served the University at Buffalo as director of athletics from 2015 to 2018. His tenure was distinguished by historic success athletically and academically. In the competitive arena, four Buffalo teams advanced to their respective NCAA championships in a two-year span. The men's and women's basketball teams both won Mid-American Conference (MAC) championships in 2016—the first time that dual feat was achieved in the MAC since 2002—and earned automatic NCAA Tournament berths. The 2017-18 men's basketball team went 27-9 and won its first-ever NCAA Tournament game by upsetting Pac-12 champion Arizona, 89-68.

Under Greene's watch, Buffalo student-athletes earned grade-point averages of 3.0 or better for 11 consecutive semesters, with the football team earning its highest team GPA in program history.

Greene was instrumental in significantly enhancing donor and corporate support for Buffalo Athletics. He also negotiated the department's first multimedia rights agreement.

Greene was a three-year starter for the Irish baseball team at the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance in 2000. He was a ninth-round selection in the 1998 Major League Baseball draft by the New York Yankees and played three years in the organization's minor league system. He later earned a Master of Business Administration at Indiana University's South Bend campus.

He is highly regarded by his peers, having served on the executive committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and LEAD1 as 1st vice-chair.

He and his wife, Christy, have three children: daughters Rian and Seneca and son Samuel.

NATIONAL PRAISE FOR ALLEN GREENE

"Congratulations to the University of Pittsburgh and Chancellor Gabel on a home run hire! Allen is one of the most innovative, genuine and competitive leaders we have in college athletics. We are sad to lose Allen and his family on Rocky Top, but look forward to seeing their transformative impact at Pitt!"

Danny White, Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics,
University of Tennessee, Knoxville

"Allen has added so much to our campus while in his leadership role in our Athletics Department, and I look forward to seeing the exceptional leadership he will provide the University of Pittsburgh. We are all aware of the uncertain state of college athletics right now, and I know Allen will also be a leader in that national conversation."

Donde Plowman, Chancellor, University of Tennessee, Knoxville

"Allen Greene is an outstanding leader; man of great character; and one of the most caring, genuine people that I've worked with in college athletics. He is an excellent listener and will create alignment with coaches, staff, alumni and donors on the direction of the athletics department. Allen is an outstanding hire and will prove to be a great leader for the University of Pittsburgh."

Lance Leipold, Head Football Coach, University of Kansas

"We look forward to welcoming Allen Greene to the ACC and having him join our outstanding group of athletic directors. As a former student-athlete at one of our league institutions, Allen will be a tremendous advocate for Pitt and the ACC. To be certain, I applaud Chancellor Joan Gabel's leadership, and Allen's experience and skill set will be a tremendous addition to our conference. Collectively, they will continue the strong momentum surrounding the University of Pittsburgh."

Jim Phillips, Atlantic Coast Conference Commissioner

"Hail to Pitt—Allen Greene is a fantastic hire for the University of Pittsburgh. He is a leader with the utmost integrity. He is a champion for student-athletes. He is a role model to many, and he has a wealth of experience in intercollegiate athletics that will benefit the entire Pitt community. H2P."

Bubba Cunningham, Director of Athletics, University of North Carolina

"Congrats to my friend Allen on this next chapter of what has already been a successful career. I went to work every day at Auburn trying to reward my boss, Allen, for the confidence he showed and the support he provided. He's a loyal and engaged leader with an unwavering commitment to excellence. I couldn't be happier for the Pitt community because they landed a five-star human being!"

Bruce Pearl, Head Men's Basketball Coach, Auburn University

RARE AIR WITH WINS AT CAMERON AND JPJ ARENA

• Pitt posted road wins over No. 7 Duke (Cameron Indoor Stadium) and No. 21 Virginia (John Paul Jones Arena) to become the first team in the past 12 seasons to secure wins at both venues. Florida State and North Carolina were the last two teams to accomplish that feat during the 2011-12 season.
• With the win at Virginia, Pitt secured its second consecutive win on the road against a ranked opponent. Pitt last accomplished that feat during the 2010-11 season.
• Blake Hinson was the catalyst in the two wins averaging 25.5 points per game, while going 19-of-29 (.655) from the field, including 12-of-20 (.600) from three-point range.

STREAK STOPPERS AT UVA

• Pitt posted a 74-63 win over No. 21 Virginia Feb. 13 to snap the Cavaliers' NCAA-best 23-game home win streak at John Paul Jones Arena.
• Blake Hinson scored a game-high 27 points on 11-of-19 shooting from the field (5-of-13 3FG), while the guard trio of Ishmael Leggett, Jaland Lowe, and Carlton Carrington combined for 34 points, 20 rebounds, and 10 assists in the win.
• The Panthers won in Charlottesville for the first time since the 1974 season, snapping a six game losing skid.
• Pitt snapped Virginia's 48-game home streak of holding ACC opponents under 70 points scored. The Panthers' 74 points scored were the most allowed by Virginia at home this season.
• The Panthers handed Virginia its first loss since Jan. 13, ending an eight-game win streak.
• Pitt made 14 threes in the contest (T-6th most in program history) for the most threes against the Cavaliers since Purdue also made 14 in the 2019 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight.
• The 14 made threes were also the most at John Paul Jones Arena since the 2008 season.

• Hinson led the ACC in three-point field goals (3.33 3pg.) and three-point percentage (.421), while also ranking among the league leaders in scoring (3rd - 18.5 ppg.) and field goal percentage (13th - .454). He scored in double figures in 28 games, while topping the 20-point mark 15 times.
• Hinson concluded his collegiate career with 1,707 points (13.2 ppg.), 586 rebounds (4.5 rpg.), and 298 three-point field goals in 129 career games. In two seasons at Pitt, he totaled 1,159 points (16.8 ppg.), 363 rebounds (5.3 rpg.), and 207 three-point field goals (3.0 3pg.), while shooting 40.1 percent from beyond the arc.
• Hinson holds Pitt records for three-pointers in a season (110) and threes per game for a career (3.0 3pg.). He also ranked seventh in career threes (207) and 30th in points (1,159).
• Hinson finished tied for fifth in ACC history with 3.0 threes per game. His 3.3 threes per game mark in 2024 is also tied for fifth most in a season by an ACC player, while his 110 total threes is tied for 12th in the league record books.
• Hinson made a school record nine three-pointers and scored 29 points in a road win over West Virginia. The nine three-pointers matched a WVU Coliseum and West Virginia opponent record as well. Hinson was 9-of-15 from threepoint range and added seven rebounds in the contest.
• Hinson made a school record 15 threes combined in consecutive games against Clemson and West Virginia. He matched the previous record with 13 combined threes in back-to-back games last season.

TRIPLE DUB BUB

• Carlton 'Bub' Carrington was selected with the No. 14 pick by the Washington Wizards via a proposed trade with Portland in the 2024 NBA Draft at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. June 26. He is the seventh Panther to be selected in the first round of the NBA Draft and the first draftee directly out of Pitt since Lamar Patterson was taken in the second round of the 2014 draft. He is the first Panther to be selected by the Washington Franchise.
• Carrington entered the 2024 NBA Draft after one season at Pitt. He was the only freshman in the country to average at least 13.5 points, 5.0 rebounds, and 4.0 assists per game. Carrington is the eighth Pitt player to bypass eligibility to enter the NBA Draft and the first to do so after his freshman season since Steven Adams (2013).
• Carrington was selected to the ACC All-Rookie Team and was also an Honorable Mention All-ACC selection. He was also named ACC Rookie of the Week a league-best five times and was twice picked as the Dick Vitale Diaper Dandy of the Week.

2023-24 NEWS & NOTES

• Carrington ranked seventh in the ACC in assists and 10th in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.13:1) and minutes played (33.2 mpg.). He also ranked second in the ACC among guards (6-5 and under) in rebounding.
• Carrington became the first Pitt freshman to score 15 or more points in each of his first four games.
• Carrington was the 10th youngest player in the NCAA. The 18-year old guard from Baltimore, Md., was born July 21, 2005.
• Carrington was named ACC Rookie of the Week in each of the first two weeks of the season. He is the first Pitt freshman to earn conference ROTW accolades in back-to-back weeks since DeJuan Blair (Dec. 17 & 24, 2007). Carrington also earned the honors Dec. 11 and Jan. 8 to become the first Pitt freshman to earn ACC Rookie of the Week honors three or more times in a season.
• Carrington finished the year ranked in the top fi ve in 12 categories in the Pitt freshman record books - points (2nd - 456), points per game (4th - 13.8), minutes (1st - 1,986), minutes per game (4th - 33.2), 20+ point games (T-5th - 5), double-fi gure scoring games (T-5th - 23), fi eld goals (T-3rd - 159), fi eld goal attempts (1st - 388), three-point fi eld goals (2nd - 65), three-point attempts (1st - 202), assists (4th - 138), and assists per game (4th - 4.1).
• Carrington ranked second among ACC freshmen in rebounds, and third in scoring, assists, and three-point field goals.
• Carrington delivered a memorable debut as a Panther becoming just the second freshman in ACC history to record a triple-double in their fi rst collegiate game. Carrington finished with 18 points, 12 rebounds, and 10 assists for the fi rst Pitt triple-double since the 1997-98 season and the fi fth overall in program history.
• Carrington posted the 10th triple-double by an ACC freshman in league history. He and Dennis Scott (Georgia Tech) are the only freshmen to record a triple-double in their first game.
• Carrington also became the first Division I player to record a triple-double in his debut since Notre Dame's Chris Thomas accomplished that feat against New Hampshire Nov. 16, 2001.
• Carrington's triple-double against NC A&T was the 22nd by a freshman in the NCAA since the start of the 2009-10 season.

STUFFING THE STAT SHEET

• Ishmael Leggett was named ACC Sixth Man of the Year, marking the second consecutive season the Panthers have provided the award winner for the conference.
• Leggett averaged 12.3 points, 5.5 rebounds, 1.9 assists, and 1.3 steals per game. He scored in double figures in 23 games and grabbed seven or more rebounds in 11 contests.
• Leggett led the Panthers in rebounding and free throw percentage (.859). He became the first guard to lead the Panthers in rebounding since Jaron Brown accomplished that feat in 2001-02 and was the leading rebounder from the guard position (6-5 and under) in the ACC.
• Leggett finished with a season-high 30 points on 11-of-18 shooting from the fi eld and 6-of-6 from the foul line in an ACC Tournament win over Wake Forest. He scored 19 of his 30 points in the second half and posted the second 30+ point game for the Panthers in ACC Tournament action. The 30-point effort off the bench was also the second best in program history.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

• Pitt has compiled a 304-91 (.770) record, including a 175-18 (.907) ledger in nonconference play, at the Petersen Events Center.
• Pitt is 28-29 (.491) versus teams ranked in the top 25 of the AP Poll at the Petersen Events Center, with a 14-10 (.583) mark against top-10 teams and a 9-4 (.692) ledger versus teams ranked in the top-5.

PITT'S CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

1927-28

HELMS FOUNDATION NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 1927-28 Pitt Panthers

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 21-0
- Home Record: 10-0
- Two All-America selections in Charley Hyatt and Sykes Reed
- Nation's top two scoring leaders in Hyatt and Stanley Wroblewski
- Won mythical national title, finishing an undefeated 21-0 season (Pitt's only undefeated season in school history)
- Averaged a then-phenomenal 38.0 points per game
- All-America selection Charley Hyatt led the nation in scoring (12.7 ppg. - 292 points) and Stanley Wrobleski ranked second (11.8 ppg. - 247 points)
- Outscored opponents 1,001-672 on the year, a plus-15.7 scoring margin
- Played a difficult schedule and was universally recognized as national champions because of its 21-0 record

RECAP

Built around the nation's top 1-2 scoring punch in All-American Charley Hyatt and Stanley Wrobleski, the 1927-28 Panthers finished undefeated at 21-0 en route to the Helms Foundation National Championship. Hyatt and accurate shooting guard Wrobleski led a Panthers offense that scored a then-phenomenal 38 points per game. Center Jerry Wunderlich was a smooth, invaluable player, All-American captain Sykes Reed always outscored his man with his speed and head coach H.C. Carlson's Panthers took advantage of good depth. Two key wins during the year included a 63-33 win vs. Dartmouth, the 1926-27 Eastern Collegiate champions, and a 24-22 win vs. Notre Dame. In the game against Notre Dame, the Fighting Irish led Pitt until the final seconds. With the score tied at 22-22, Charley Hyatt took a pass from Paul Zehfuss and laid it through the hoop from under the basket. The shot gave Pitt the lead for the first time as the gun sounded.

HELMS FOUNDATION NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Charley Hyatt

Lester Cohen

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 23-2
- Home Record: 12-0
- Scoring Margin: +11.2 points per game
- Charley Hyatt was named an All-American for the third season, one of 18 NCAA Division I players all-time to earn three honors
- Won Pitt's second mythical national title and the program's second national title in three seasons
- For the second time in his career, All-American Charley Hyatt led the nation in scoring at 12.6 points per game
- The season was part of Pitt's winningest three-year period as the Panthers went 60-7 with an .895 winning percentage from 1927-30
- Outscored opponents 941-660 on the season, a +11.2 scoring margin
- Won the season's first 12 games, a streak that ranks among the best starts in school history
- With the title, Pitt became one of 10 schools to win two or more national titles between 1901 and 1937. The other schools include Chicago, Columbia, Wisconsin (3), Kansas, Minnesota, Notre Dame, Pennyslvania, Syracuse and Yale

RECAP

Charley Hyatt's senior season was one for the record books as the three-time All-American led Pitt to its second national title in three seasons. Hyatt (12.6 ppg. - 314 points) was described as the "surest shot that has ever stepped into the Stadium at Pitt," and the "greatest" forward in America. He concluded his career averaging an amazing 13.1 points per game and twice led the nation in scoring. Others playing key roles on the squad included Paul Zehfuss, a tiny guard who gained fame through his speed, Lester Cohen, described as Pitt's all-time best center, and guard Edward Baker, who also quarterbacked the Panthers football team.

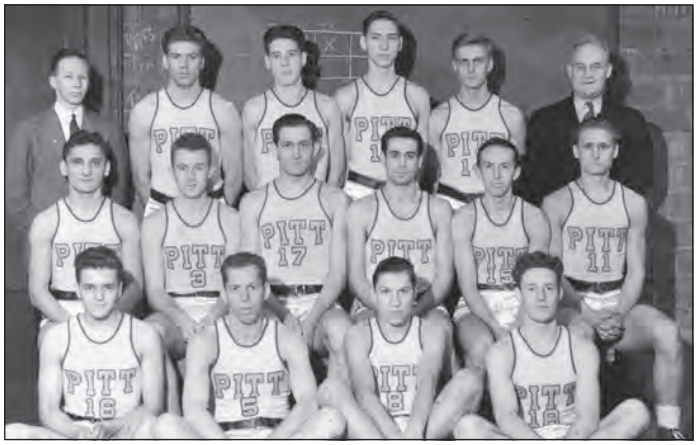
NCAA FINAL FOUR



The 1940-41 Pitt Panthers

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 13-6
- Home Record: 7-2
- Pitt was invited to play in the eight-school NCAA Tournament
- All team members graduated and fought in World War II
- One member of the team, Harry Matthews, was killed in the war, but the rest of the team returned to the United States
- Made Pitt's first NCAA Tournament appearance and advanced to the Final Four in Kansas City, Mo.
- The tournament was the third basketball championship in NCAA history
- During the 1939-40 season, members of the Pitt squad participated as part of the first nationally televised basketball doubleheader at Madison Square Garden on Feb. 28, 1940 as the Panthers defeated Fordham in the opener
- Played its first six games on the road, going 4-2
- Since the team was small by standards, the team received such nicknames as "Rinkydinks," "Little Toughies" and "Busy Bees"

RECAP

Head coach Doc Carlson's 1940-41 Pitt basketball team started five seniors: Sam Milanovich, Mel Port, Eddie Straloski, George Kocheran and Jimmy Klein, while Larry Paffrath, Clair Malarkey and Lefty Ziolowski each made significant contributions off the bench. The squad was small by team standards, but advanced to the Final Four after receiving an invitation to the eight-team NCAA Tournament. In the NCAA's eight-team tournament, Pitt defeated North Carolina, 26-20, to advance to the Final Four. Pitt lost a 36-30 decision to Wisconsin, which went on to win the national title against Washington State.

NCAA ELITE EIGHT

The 1973-74 Pitt Panthers

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 25-4
- Home Record: 13-0
- Pitt's first team to advance to NCAA Elite Eight in the new NCAA format
- All five starters were Pittsburgh natives and were featured in a prominent story in Sports Illustrated
- Set a school record with 25 wins
- Won 22 consecutive games after losing the season opener to West Virginia
- Billy Knight became just the second player in Pitt basketball history to average more than 20.0 points per game in three consecutive seasons
- Averaged 80.8 points per game to its opponents' 65.8 per season
- Extended home win streak to 27 games

RECAP

The 1973-74 athletic year proved to be a magical one for Pitt athletics as the basketball team finished 25-4 and the football team posted its first winning season in 10 years. Pitt played with tremendous pride as it compiled a school-record 22-game win streak. Led by coach Charles "Buzz" Ridl, top scorers Billy Knight (21.8 ppg/13.4 rpg), Mickey Martin (12.2 ppg) and Lew Hill (10.8 ppg), along with key contributors Kirk Bruce, Tom Richards and Keith Starr, helped the squad earn Pitt's first NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance. The Panthers defeated Saint Joseph's and Furman before losing the East Regional final to a No. 1-ranked NC State team which featured David Thompson, Tom Burleson and Monty Towe.

- Home Record: 11-3
- Eastern 8 Record: 8-5
- Advanced to second round of the NCAA Tournament under first-year coach Roy Chipman
- Won the school's first league tournament title and first Eastern 8 Tournament title to earn an automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament
- Defeated Rutgers 67-62 in the Eastern 8 Tournament's first round ... prior to that game, Pitt had lost eight straight to Rutgers, including a key one-point loss upon entering postseason play
- Sam Clancy ranked among top Eastern 8 players in both scoring (third - 16.3 ppg) and rebounding (second - 10.7 rpg)

RECAP

After concluding the Eastern 8 regular season at 8-5, Pitt entered the tournament as the No. 4 seed and captured the crown by defeating Duquesne, 64-60, in the title game at Pittsburgh's Civic Arena. Famous for its 1-3-1 defense, the 1980-81 squad held its three Eastern 8 Tournament opponents to 55.6 points per game in winning the school's first league tournament title. Lennie McMillian sparked the Pittsburgh effort by earning tournament MVP honors. Pitt went on to defeat Idaho in the NCAA Tournament's first round before losing to North Carolina in the second round.

BIG EAST REGULAR SEASON CO-CHAMPIONS

The 1986-87 Pitt Panthers

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 25-8
- Home Record: 12-3
- Big East Record: 12-4
- Won its first regular season Big East title in head coach Paul Evans' first season
- Shared the Big East regular season title in a three-way tie with Syracuse and Georgetown
- Tied a then school-record for most wins in a season (25)
- Concluded the season ranked No. 12 in the AP poll
- Broke school records for single-season scoring, scoring average, field goals made and free throws made
- Three players - Charles Smith, Curtis Aiken and Demetreus Gore - became 1,000-point career scorers
- Swept 1986 Final Four participants Syracuse and Providence during the regular season
- Advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round
- Charles Smith and Jerome Lane both earned All-Big East and All-America honors
- Won the school's first Big East Tournament game, a 96-88 win vs. Seton Hall
- Lane led the NCAA in rebounding and set the Big East's single-season rebounding record (13.5 rpg).

RECAP

In his first season as Pitt's head coach, Paul Evans turned the Panthers around faster than anyone in Big East history. Evans transformed a squad that finished 15-14 in 1985-86 and guided it to a co-Big East regular season title and 25-8 record. Combining the leadership of point guard Curtis Aiken, the emergence of NCAA rebounding champion Jerome Lane, the smooth, silky scoring of Charles Smith along with an outstanding cast of talented supporting players in Demetreus Gore, Mike Goodson and Rod Brookin, Evans' charges guided Pitt basketball into the spotlight.

BIG EAST REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS

The 1987-88 Pitt Panthers

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 24-7
- Home Record: 11-2
- Big East Record: 12-4
- Won the Big East Regular season championship outright after sharing the league title during the 1986-87 season
- Advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in six years, earning the No. 2 seed in the Midwest Region
- Jerome Lane shattered a backboard in Fitzgerald Field House (Feb. 25 vs. Providence)
- Charles Smith was named Big East Player of the Year and ended his career as Pitt's all-time leading scorer
- Sean Miller was named Big East Freshman of the Year
- Smith and Lane became the school's first duo selected in the NBA Draft's First Round
- Smith was a member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic team.

RECAP

Led by the All-America selection and NBA First Round Draft pick duo of Charles Smith and Jerome Lane and supported by one of the top freshman classes assembled in NCAA history, the Panthers captured sole possession of the Big East regular season title and earned the No. 2 seed in the Midwest Region of the NCAA Tournament. Along with the 1-2 punch inside game of Smith and Lane, other players including Jason Matthews, Demetreus Gore, Sean Miller, Bobby Martin, Nate Bailey, Pat Cavanaugh and Darelle Porter made significant contributions. The 1987-88 Big East championship established Pitt and proved its potential as a basketball program. After defeating Eastern Michigan in the NCAA Tournament's First Round, the Panthers dropped an 80-74 overtime heartbreaker to Vanderbilt. The Comodores hit a three-pointer at the buzzer to send the game into overtime.

BIG EAST WEST CHAMPIONS
NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN

The 2001-02 Pitt Panthers

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 29-6
- Home Record: 16-1
- Big East Record: 13-3
- Captured the Big East title with a school-record 13-3 conference mark, the school's first league title of any kind since 1987-88
- Advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen for just the second time in school history and the first time since 1974
- Won a school-record 29 games, surpassing the former record of 25 wins set in 1973-74
- Led Big East in team scoring defense, scoring margin, and 3-point percentage defense
- Closed out Fitzgerald Field House with a school-record 16-1 home record, the most wins in facility history
- Held opponents to 60.9 points per game, the fewest points allowed since 1951-52
- Head coach Ben Howland was named the 2001-02 consensus national coach of the year while Brandin Knight earned All-America, all-region and co-Big East Player of the Year honors
- Howland's National Coach of the Year honor was Pitt's first since Johnny Majors earned football coach of the year honors in 1976
- Advanced to the Big East Tournament title game for the second consecutive season.

RECAP

After league coaches picked the Panthers to finish sixth in the Big East's West Division, the 2001-02 Panthers proved the critics wrong and surprised the nation as they won the Big East-West championship and finished 29-6. The team put Pitt Basketball back on the national scene as the squad relied on team chemistry and defensive strength. Guard Brandin Knight provided important leadership, led the team in both points (15.6 ppg.) and assists (7.2 apg.) and played a role in 47.9 percent of the team's field goals. Fans enjoyed Julius Page's athleticism, Jaron Brown's determination and rebounding, Ontario Lett's scoring presence, Donatas Zavackas' outside shooting along with a late season emergence from freshman Chevon Troutman.

The 2002-03 Pitt Panthers

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 28-5
- Home Record: 16-0
- Big East Record: 13-3
- Won school's first Big East Tournament championship, captured its second consecutive Big East-West title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen for the second straight season
- Went 57-11 from 2001-03
- Finished a perfect 16-0 at home in the inaugural season at the sold out 12,508-seat Petersen Events Center
- Continued a 22-game home win streak
- Set school record for fewest points allowed per game (59.2)
- Ranked among the nation's top-10 in seven statistical categories: scoring margin (second), field goal percentage (second), assists per game (fourth), win-loss percentage (fifth), scoring defense (fifth), field goal percentage defense (sixth) and rebound margin (10th)
- Ranked as high as No. 2 nationally in eight polls on the year and was one of five schools nationally (Arizona, Pitt, Duke, Oklahoma, Texas) to rank among the nation's top-10 throughout the season
- Advanced to the Big East Championship final for the third straight year
- Seniors Brandin Knight, Donatas Zavackas and Ontario Lett finished with the best four-year record in school history: 89-40
- Julius Page was named the Big East Tournament Most Valuable Player

RECAP

After a highly successful 2001-02 campaign, the national spotlight was focused on the Panthers to continue that success and the veteran 2002-03 Pitt team didn't disappoint. Scoring balance and team defense were strengths as six Panthers concluded the year scoring at least 9.0 points per game, while Pitt held its opponents to a school-record 59.2 average. The 2002-03 Panthers did what no Pittsburgh team had ever accomplished in the school's 21-year Big East history, win the Big East Tournament title. Using suffocating, physical defense and balanced scoring, Pitt won three straight games and defeated Connecticut, 74-56, for the title.

BIG EAST TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

The 2007-08 Pitt Panthers

SEASON NOTES

- Overall Record: 27-10
- Home Record: 15-2
- Big East Record: 10-8
- Captured the school's second Big East Tournament title ... became just the second team in Big East history to win four games in four days to win the title
- The three wins to advance to the title game were against teams that defeated Pitt during the regular season: Cincinnati, Louisivlle and Marquette
- Advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the seventh consecutive season as a No. 4 seed in Denver, Colo.
- Pitt earned several prominent Big East Awards: Sam Young (All-Big East First Team, Most Improved Player and Big East Tournament MVP), DeJuan Blair (Freshman of the Year) and Ronald Ramon (Sportsmanship Award)

RECAP

Never before had a Pitt basketball team faced more adversity in a season. During the final week of December, two of Pitt's starters and most experienced players were lost to injuries in back-to-back games: Mike Cook in overtime vs. Duke (torn ACL) and Levance Fields at Dayton (fractured foot). Pitt was ranked as high as No. 6 nationally before the injuries. Despite the adversity, coach Jamie Dixon and Pitt never lost sight of its goals. Players stepped into new roles and responded. Fields eventually came back and helped guide the team to the Big East Championship. Others who played key roles were leading scorer Sam Young, freshman All-American DeJuan Blair, seniors Ronald Ramon and Keith Benjamin, along with emerging players Gilbert Brown, Tyrell Biggs and Brad Wanamaker. The season saw some amazing games and comebacks, including a win over Duke at Madison Square Garden on a Fields' game-winning stepback three-pointer in overtime. Ronald Ramon hit a game-winning three-pointer at the buzzer to defeat West Virginia and Pitt also had one of the most amazing comebacks in school history when it used an 18-2 run to overcome an 11-point deficit with 3:49 left to claim an 82-77 win at Syracuse.

- Completed season with a 17-1 home record and defeated two top-5 teams at home
- Set season school records for most Big East regular season wins (15), rebound margin (10.7), lowest opponent rebound average (29.2), assist:turnover ratio (1.49) and fewest turnovers per game (11.7)
- Played in the first-ever basketball game at Consol Energy Center (Dec. 1, 2010 vs. Duquesne)

RECAP

Pitt entered 2010-11 with lofty expectations including a preseason top-5 national ranking and coaches' choice to win the Big East title. The Panthers responded by winning the Big East regular season championship outright, earning a No. 1 seed upon entering the NCAA Tournament and garnering a top-5 national ranking throughout the year. Pitt celebrated its Big East title following a 60-50 win over Villanova at the Petersen Events Center on March 5, 2011. Leadership from Brad Wanamaker, Gary McGhee and Gilbert Brown proved valuable throughout the year. Leading scorer Ashton Gibbs and role players Nasir Robinson, Tray Woodall, Dante Taylor, Talib Zanna and Lamar Patterson all made key contributions.

INTERNATIONAL MEDALISTS

SAM CLANCY
Gold Medalist - 1979 Pan American Games
San Juan, Puerto Rico

Led by head coach Bob Knight, the 1979 USA Pan American Games team featured one of the youngest and most explosive squads in American history. The Americans breezed to the Gold Medal contest by winning nine straight games and averaging a record 100.8 points per game. Pitt's Sam Clancy was a key contributor off the bench on a team featuring NBA All-Stars Isaiah Thomas, Kevin McHale and Ralph Sampson. He averaged 3.6 points (10-18 FG) while pulling down 3.3 rebounds per game.

CHARLES SMITH
Gold Medalist - 1986 USA World Championships
Madrid, Spain

For the first time in 32 years, USA brought home the Gold Medal at the World Championships. Widely considered a darkhorse to win the gold, Team USA finished 9-1 and fended off a late rally to capture an 87-85 championship game decision over the USSR. Smith provided the firepower as he averaged a team-leading 15.0 points, hit 52.7 percent (61-117) of his field goals and pulled down 5.8 rebounds per game. Coached by Lute Olsen, the team also featured 12 future NBA players including David Robinson, Sean Elliott, Steve Kerr, Kenny Smith and Rony Seikaly.

Bronze Medalist- 1988 USA Olympic Team
Seoul, Korea

Favored to win the Gold Medal, head coach John Thompson's United States team lost a semifinal game to the Soviet Union, but rebounded with a 78-49 win over Australia to claim the Bronze Medal. Smith averaged 7.8 points and 4.1 rebounds per game. It was Smith's second international competition. USA finished 7-1 in competition.

Charles Smith

Sam Clancy

JEROME LANE
Silver Medalist - 1987 Pan American Games
Indianapolis, Ind.

Team USA won its first five games by an average margin of 29 points but was denied the gold medal for just the second time in 36 years of the event as Brazil upset the Americans 120-115 in the Championship game. Lane appeared in six games and averaged 3.5 rebounds per game. Leading scorers included David Robinson, Danny Manning and Rex Chapman.

SEAN MILLER
Gold Medalist - 1991 World University Games
Sheffield, England

Miller helped lead Team USA to a perfect 6-0 record, a second consecutive gold medal and eighth gold in 12 tries. He ranked second on the squad with six three-pointers and connected on a perfect 10-10 free throws. Coached by P.J. Carlesimo, Team USA outscored its opponents on average 103.2-63.8.

JAMIE DIXON AND ASHTON GIBBS
Gold Medalist - 2009 FIBA World Championships
Auckland, New Zealand

Gibbs and head coach Jamie Dixon led the USA Basketball Under-19 Team to the 2009 FIBA World Championship Gold Medal with a perfect 9-0 record. Dixon assumed head coaching duties just a month before the team was to depart for New Zealand. He inherited an overhauled roster, guided the squad to the title and was named USA Basketball's Coach of the Year for his efforts. Gibbs averaged 9.8 points per game and dished out 20 assists. He also contributed 12 3-pointers and connected on 82 percent of his free throw attempts. The USA stint proved to be a valuable experience for Gibbs upon entering his sophomore season. In 2011, Gibbs represented Team USA at the World University Games in Shenzhen, China.

INTERNATIONAL MEDALISTS

JAMES ROBINSON
Gold Medalist - 2012 FIBA Americas Championships
Sao Sebastiao, Brazil
Robinson became the first player in school history to earn two Gold Medals in international competition in July, 2013 when he played a role on the USA Basketball 2013 Under-19 FIBA World Championship team. USA registered a perfect 9-0 record en route to the championship and defeated Serbia, 82-68, in the title game.

Gold Medalist- 2013 FIBA World Championships
Prague, Czech Republic
In 2012, Robinson also helped lead the USA Basketball Under-18 team to its sixth all-time FIBA Americas Gold Medal. The Americans concluded the event with a perfect 5-0 record and outscored five opponents by an average of 38.6 points per contest. USA defeated host Brazil, 81-56, in the title game. As the team's point guard, Robinson led Team USA in assist:turnover ratio and averaged 4.4 points per game. Robinson also represented Team USA at the Nike Hoops Summit.

SHELDON JETER
Gold Medalist - 2019 Pan American Games 3x3
Lima, Peru
Jeter helped lead Team USA to the gold medal of 3x3 men's basketball at the 2019 Pan American Games. Jeter scored a team-high eight points in the gold medal game, a 21-19 win over Puerto Rico. This was the first time 3x3 basketball has been included at the Pan American Games, and the men's and women's tournaments feature six teams each. Similar to the Pan American Games, 3X3 basketball will make its Olympic debut at the 2020 Summer Olympic Games in Tokyo.

ABDOUL KARIM COULIBALY
Silver Medalist - 2019 FIBA U19 World Cup
Heraklion, Greece
Coulibaly led Mali to its first medal in basketball with a silver medal finish at the 2019 FIBA U19 World Cup in Greece. Coulibaly was a major factor on the Mali team as the forward averaged 13.1 points, 6.9 rebounds, 1.7 blocks and 2.4 assists per game throughout the tournament against teams from the United States, France, Puerto Rico, New Zealand, Canada, Australia and Latvia. Mali became the first team from an African country to advance to the gold medal game in international competition.

WILLIAM JEFFRESS
Gold Medalist - 2019 FIBA U16 Americas
Belem, Brazil
Jeffress averaged 3.3 points and 1.8 rebounds in 9.0 minutes per game as Team USA went 6-0 with a +38.2 scoring margin at the 2019 FIBA U16 Americas. He posted a tournament-best nine points and four rebounds in 15 minutes in a quarterfinal win over Puerto Rico.

GUILLERMO DIAZ GRAHAM
Gold Medalist - 2022 FIBA U20 Championship
Podgorica, Montenegro
Diaz Graham averaged in 6.3 points, 2.4 rebounds and 1.7 blocks per game, while shooting 59.1 percent (16-of-27) from the field as Spain posted a 7-0 record to claim the gold medal. He had a pair of double-figure scoring games for a loaded Spanish team.

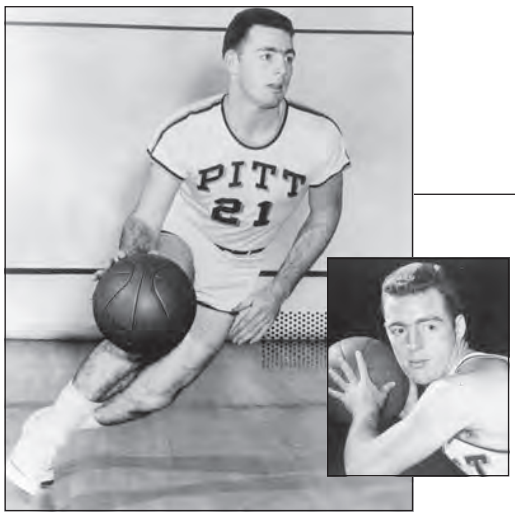
RETIRED JERSEYS



DON HENNON 10

Don Hennon, who wore jersey number 10, was the first basketball player to have his number retired by the University of Pittsburgh on Jan. 13, 1968. Hennon played three years—1956 to 1959—scored 1,814 points and averaged 24.2 points per game. A 5-foot-8 1/2 inch tall guard, Hennon was the most prolific scorer in school history. He became Pitt's first All-American in 22 years, earned All-American honors in all three seasons and was inducted into the Helms Athletic Foundation Basketball Hall of Fame. Hennon still holds Pitt's single-game scoring record (45 points) and was the school's all-time career scoring leader for 29 years (1959-88). He has twice been honored by the University of Pittsburgh, earning the Charles C. Hartwig Award as a senior and Panther Letterman of Distinction Award in 1985. Hennon went on to become a successful medical doctor and was inducted into the Pitt Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019.

CAREER NOTES

- Native of Wampum, Pa.
- Elected to the Helms Athletic Foundation Hall of Fame in 1970.
- Two-time First Team All-America selection (AP, UPI, Helms-1958; UPI, Helms-1959).
- Third Team Helms Foundation All-America pick in 1957.
- Guided Pitt to two NCAA Tournament appearances (1957 and 1958).
- Owns nine of Pitt's top-20 single-game scoring records and scored 40-plus points three times, 30-plus points 24 times and 20-plus points 52 times in his career.
- Set school record with 12 consecutive games scoring over 20 points.
- Two-time NABC All-Region pick (1957 and 1958).
- Holds scoring records for season average (26.0 ppg) and career average (24.2 ppg).
- Ranks fourth all-time on Pitt's career scoring list (1,841).
- Needed only 38 career games to score 1,000 points in his career, a school record.
- Scored a school record 45 points at Duke as a sophomore, then followed it up with a 31-point performance vs. Duquesne.
- Ranked second in the nation in scoring in both 1957-58 (26.0 ppg.) and 1958-59 (25.7 ppg.).
- Selected in the 1959 NBA Draft in the sixth round by the Cincinnati Royals.
- Played for his father in high school where he set a Pennsylvania scoring record with 2,376 points and averaged 25.0 points in 95 career games. As a senior, he scored 1,003 points and averaged 32.3 points per contest.
- Received 68 scholarship offers and chose Pitt over offers from Duke and NC State

BILLY KNIGHT 34

The 1973-74 Pitt squad was one of the most successful basketball teams in program history. The team was led by smooth Billy Knight, whose number 34 was retired on Feb. 20, 1989. In three varsity seasons, Knight scored 1,731 career points and had a career scoring average of 22.2 points per game, second only to Don Hennon. He led the 1974 Panthers to the NCAA Eastern Regional Finals, the farthest any Pitt team had advanced in the tournament, and earned All-America honors. For his efforts, he won the Panther Award in 1974, which is presented to the student-athlete who best promotes the university through athletic achievement. Knight went on to have an 11-year All-Pro career in both the ABA and NBA. He also became a successful NBA executive and served a stint as the Atlanta Hawks' General Manager. Knight was inducted into the inaugural Pitt Athletics Hall of Fame class in 2018.

BRANDIN KNIGHT 20

The fourth and most recent player to have a jersey retired wore No. 20 from 1999-2003. That player is Brandin Knight. A Pitt point guard, Knight's leadership was largely responsible for the Panthers' recent basketball renaissance. The program's transformation can be traced directly through Knight, who led the dramatic turnaround. Knight led Pitt to two NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearances, back-to-back Big East regular season titles (2001-02 and 2002-03), the program's first Big East Tournament title (2003) and an 89-40 four-year record. A 2003 Wooden All-America team selection, 2002 Associated Press All-America team member, two-time All-Big East honoree and 2001-02 Big East Most Valuable Player/Most Improved Player winner, Knight concluded his career with 1,440 points, a school-record 785 assists, 492 rebounds and 298 steals. After a brief professional basketball stint, Knight his collegiate coaching career at Pitt in 2006. His jersey was retired on March 4, 2009.

ALL-TIME NUMERICAL ROSTER

List is from 1939-40. List is not a letterwinner list. Many players are missing, some players wear a different jersey each season and some numbers are worn by two players in a given year. The list depicts players who wore each number even if they did not play - i.e. redshirted, etc. Jerseys reflect the jerseys worn at home games. Multiple numbers were worn in several years.

NCAA TOURNAMENT GAME HISTORY

1941 • FINAL FOUR

Pitt 26, North Carolina 20
Madison, Wis. (3/21/41)

Claire Malarkey scores a team-high seven points and H.C. "Doc" Carlson's Panthers rally from a 12-8 halftime deficit. Pitt outscores the Tar Heels 18-8 in the second half to make its first and only NCAA Final Four appearance.

Wisconsin 36, Pitt 30
Madison, Wis. (3/22/41)

Captain Eddie Straloski's long shots for 12 points weren't enough to hold off the Badgers, who trailed 18-14 at halftime. Wisconsin pulls out the win thanks to a double-digit performance from Big Ten MVP Gene Englund (11 points) and eventual NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player John Krotz (10). The Madison atmosphere proves to be the difference as Pitt opened its season with a 36-34 victory against Wisconsin.

1957 • SECOND ROUND

Pitt 86, Morehead State 85
Columbus, Ohio (3/11/57)

Little used reserve John Laneve converts a layup with 31 seconds left to provide the winning points for Bob Timmons' Panthers. It was Laneve's only two points of the tournament. Don Hennon's 31 points (11 FG, 9-11 FT) and John Riser's 20 rebounds led Pitt. Seven players fouled out of the game, 56 personal fouls were called and the two teams combine for 69-of-96 free throw shooting.

Kentucky 98, Pitt 92
Lexington, Ky. (3/15/57)

John Riser's 30 points and Don Hennon's 24 weren't enough as the Panthers come up short, 98-92 against Adolph Rupp's No. 3 ranked Kentucky Wildcats in the Midwest Region.

Notre Dame 86, Pitt 85
Lexington, Ky. (3/16/57)

In a consolation game before 12,300 at Memorial Coliseum, John Riser scores a career-high and Pitt NCAA Tournament record 34 points on 14-22 shooting. An All-NCAA Mideast Regional selection, Riser concludes Pitt's three-game NCAA Tournament ranked second among tourney participants in scoring (28.0 ppg.). Pitt's Don Hennon also finishes with 20 points. Three Notre Dame players score 20 or more points: John McCarthy (23), John Smyth (22 points/23 rebounds) and Tom Hawkins (21). All five starters play the entire game for Notre Dame.

1958 • FIRST ROUND

Miami (Ohio) 82, Pitt 77
Evanston, Ill. (3/11/58)

Julius Pegues scores a career-high 31 points and Don Hennon adds 28 in the Mideast Region. Miami's Wayne Embry finishes with 21 points.

1963 • FIRST ROUND

New York Univ. 93, Pitt 83
Philadelphia, Pa. (3/11/58)

The one-two punch of Barry Kramer (37 points) and Happy Hairston (29) lead the Violets to a 93-83 win over the Panthers in the East Region at the Philadelphia Palestra. Pitt's Calvin Sheffield scores 20 points followed by Ben Jinks' 17 and Dave Roman's 16. NYU outrebounds Pitt 43-27.

1974 • ELITE EIGHT

Pitt 54, Saint Joseph's 42
Morgantown, W.Va. (3/9/74)

In a defensive battle, Mickey Martin's 12 points, Billy Knight's 11 and Keith Starr's 10 carry the 24-3 Panthers in the first round. Pitt limits Saint Joseph's to 16 first half points and 36.4 percent (16-44) shooting for the game.

Pitt 81, Furman 78
Raleigh, N.C. (3/14/74)

Billy Knight regains his shooting touch to score 34 points and Kirk Bruce converts 6-9 shots and finishes with 12 points in the East Region semifinals. Knight's 34 points matches Pitt's school scoring record for an NCAA Tournament game. He hits 12-20 field goals and 11-12 free throws. The Panthers advance to the Elite Eight for the first time since the tournament expanded to 32 teams.

NC State 100, Pitt 72
Raleigh, N.C. (3/16/74)

Not even Pitt's storied amoeba defense could slow down the No. 1 Wolfpack, which defeats the Panthers 100-72 despite the loss of All-American David Thompson to a head injury in a first half fall. Holding a six-point halftime lead, N.C. State (28-1) outscores Pitt 53-31 in the second half. Tom Burleson contributes 26 points and 12 rebounds, Phil Spence finishes with 10 points and 14 rebounds and Monty Towe adds 19 points and six assists. NC State went on to win the national championship. Pitt's Billy Knight finishes with 19 points and 10 rebounds.

1981 • SECOND ROUND

10-Pitt 70, 7-Idaho 69 (OT)
El Paso, Texas (3/13/81)

Dwayne Wallace's leaning 15-footer with three seconds left in overtime lifts Roy Chipman's Panthers past the Vandals in the West Region. PItt outscores Idaho 9-8 in the overtime period. Sam Clancy's 22 points (9-15 FG) and 13 rebounds and Wallace's 20 points lead Pitt. Pitt makes its first NCAA Tournament appearance in eight seasons after winning the Eastern 8 Tournament title. The RPI, a computer rating system is used for the first time that season as a factor in making at-large selections.

2-North Carolina 74, 10-Pitt 57
El Paso, Texas (3/15/81)

Pitt storms out to an early nine-point lead but the Tar Heels roar back behind James Worthy's 21 points and Sam Perkins' 19 to win the West Region semifinal. North Carolina leads by 11 points at halftime and shot 58.7 percent from the floor (27-46). Pitt's Carlton Neverson scores 17 points and Sam Clancy adds 16.

1982 • FIRST ROUND

7-Pepperdine 99, 10-Pitt 88
Pullman, Wash. (3/12/82)

Big man Orlando Phillips scores 27 points (11-14 FG) and guard Boot Bond contributes 24 as the Waves win their 15th consecutive game with a victory in the West Region. Pitt's Darrell Gissendanner came off the bench for 20 points, while Dwayne Wallace (seven assists) and Clyde Vaughan each add 17 points.

1985 • FIRST ROUND

5-Louisiana Tech 78, 12-Pitt 54
Tulsa, Okla. (3/14/85)

With Charles Smith limping around on an injured left foot, Pitt couldn't stand up against the taller and stronger Bulldogs in the Midwest Region. Louisiana Tech (28-2) tallies 24 offensive rebounds and outrebounds Pitt 56-26. Future NBA star Karl Malone finishes with nine points and 10 rebounds for the Bulldogs. Reserve Daryl Shepherd paces Pitt with 18 points.

1987 • SECOND ROUND

3-Pitt 93, 14-Marist 68
Tucson, Ariz. (3/13/87)

Charles Smith and Demetreus Gore each contribute 22 points in a 25-point West Region victory against the Rik Smits-led Red Foxes.

6-Oklahoma 96, 3-Pitt 93
Tucson, Ariz. (3/15/87)

Charles Smith and Rod Brookin each contribute 23 points and Jerome Lane adds 14 points and 13 rebounds in the loss to the Sooners, who led by as many as 16 points in the first half and by 10 points (51-41) at halftime. Oklahoma's Tim McCallister finishes with a game-high 28 points (4-8 3FG) and Harvey Grant adds 18.

1988 • SECOND ROUND

2-Pitt 108, 15-Eastern Michigan 90
Lincoln, Neb. (3/18/88)

The Panthers shoot a scorching 63 percent from the floor and score their most points in an NCAA Tournament game as Charles Smith registers 31 points and 12 rebounds, Demetreus Gore adds 24 points and Jerome Lane finishes with 22 points, 17 rebounds and eight assists. Pitt outrebounds EMU 43-20 and registers 31 assists on 43 field goals.

7-Vanderbilt 80, 2-Pitt 74 (OT)
Lincoln, Neb. (3/20/88)

Barry Goheen's three-pointer in the final seconds of regulation sends the contest into overtime as the Commodores go on to upset the heavily favored and No. 2 seeded Panthers. Goheen, who hit two three-pointers in the final 20 seconds of regulation, finishes with 22 points, while Barry Booker adds 16 for the Commodores. All-American Charles Smith leads the Panthers with 21 points and 10 rebounds and Jerome Lane grabs a Pitt NCAA Tournament all-time high 20 rebounds.

1989 • FIRST ROUND

9-Ball State 68, 8-Pitt 64
Indianapolis, Ind. (3/10/89)

Ball State, led by Rick Majerus, jumps out to an early 21-8 lead and never trails in raising its season record to 29-2. Jason Matthews leads Pitt with 23 points on 5-9 three-point shooting. The Hoosier Dome attendance of 37,242 marks the largest crowd ever to attend a Pitt game. Paris McCurdy leads the Cardinals with 18 points. It is Pitt's third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

1991 • SECOND ROUND

6-Pitt 76, 12-Georgia 68 (OT)
Louisville, Ky. (3/14/91)

With an overtime win, Pitt advances to the NCAA Tournament Second Round for the third time in the last five seasons at Freedom Hall. Georgia outscores Pitt 17-4 in the first six minutes of the second half to take a 46-36 lead, but the Panthers battle back as reserve Tim Glover comes off the bench to hit four three-pointers in a five-minute span to help tie the game at 55-55. With 24 seconds to go, Jason Matthews' three-point field goal sends the game into overtime, 66-66. In overtime, Sean Miller hits four free throws as Pitt outscores Georgia 10-2 to clinch the win. Brian Shorter had 23 points and 13 rebounds and Glover finishes with 12 points.

3-Kansas 77, 6-Pitt 66
Louisville, Ky. (3/16/91)

Jason Matthews scores 17 points and Brian Shorter is held to six points and three rebounds in a 10-point loss to the Jayhawks. Kansas uses a 12-3 second half run to take control of the game. Pitt shoots 38.2 percent from the floor and is outrebounded 37-27.

1993 • FIRST ROUND

8-Utah 86, 9-Pitt 65
Nashville, Tenn. (3/19/93)

Utah shoots 52 percent from the floor and uses a flurry of three three-pointers before halftime to defeat the Panthers. Chris McNeal has 15 points, Eric Mobley has 14 points and seven rebounds and Jerry McCullough registers seven points and seven assists in the loss. Phil Dixon scores 22 points for the Rick Majerus-coached Utes.

2002 • SWEET SIXTEEN

3-Pitt 71, 14-Central Connecticut State 54
Pittsburgh, Pa. (3/15/02)

Playing in front of a sellout hometown Mellon Arena crowd of 17,015, the Panthers use a second half rally and a 42-22 rebounding advantage to take a comfortable 40-27 lead in advancing to the Second Round. Brandin Knight (17 points, nine assists) and Julius Page (16 points, four 3-pointers) pace the Panthers.

3-Pitt 63, 6-California 50
Pittsburgh, Pa. (3/17/02)

Using suffocating defense and timely shooting, Pitt advances to the NCAA Regional semifinals for the first time in 28 years as it uses a 16-0 second half run to take control. During the rally, Pitt holds California scoreless for nine minutes. Julius Page provides the spark with 17 points including three three-pointers.

10-Kent State 78, 3-Pitt 73 (OT)
Lexington, Ky. (3/21/02)

Field goals by Julius Page and Brandin Knight send the game into overtime after Pitt trails by four points with two minutes to go. In overtime, Pitt leads 71-70 with 1:11 remaining, but Trevor Huffman's layup gives KSU the lead for good. The Golden Flashes then convert all six free throw attempts over the final minute. Page and Knight finish with 18 points apiece for Pitt. Antonio Gates leads Kent State with a game-high 22 points.

2003 • SWEET SIXTEEN

2-Pitt 87, 15-Wagner 61
Boston, Mass. (3/21/03)

Pitt takes control with an 11-point first half lead and cruises to a 26-point win, its largest in the school's NCAA Tournament history. Pitt shoots 56 percent from the floor and opens the second half with an 18-3 run. Seven Panthers score at least eight points led by Donatas Zavackas' 16 points and seven rebounds.

2-Pitt 74, 7-Indiana 52
Boston, Mass. (3/23/03)

Pitt advances to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the second consecutive year as Jaron Brown scores a career-high 20 points and pulls down eight rebounds. Pitt uses a 9-0 run before halftime to take a 31-21 lead. Brandin Knight (17 points), Julius Page (13) and Chevon Troutman (10) all contribute key performances.

3-Marquette 77, 2-Pitt 74
Minneapolis, Minn. (3/27/03)

Marquette ends Pitt's 11-game win streak as it builds a lead and fends off a late Pitt rally. Pitt rallied back from an 11-point deficit to within one point (75-74), but it is not enough as Marquette's Scott Merritt converts two free throws for its three-point lead. Dwyane Wade scores 22 points for Marquette (including 20 in the second half), while Brandin Knight leads Pitt with 16 points and 11 assists.

NCAA TOURNAMENT GAME HISTORY

2004 • SWEET SIXTEEN

3-Pitt 53, 14-Central Florida 44
Milwaukee, Wis. (3/19/04)

A closely contested game featuring two of the nation's top defensive squads sees Pitt use a 13-2 run over a seven-minute second half span to gain control. Pitt shoots a season-low 29 percent from the floor, but limits UCF to 31 percent shooting (16-52). Carl Krauser scores 20 points (9-10 FT), Chevon Troutman adds 13 points and Chris Taft registers 16 rebounds.

3-Pitt 59, 6-Wisconsin 55
Milwaukee, Wis. (3/21/04)

Before a pro-Wisconsin crowd at the Bradley Center, No. 3 seeded Pitt wins an emotional and hard fought contest in a hostile environment. After trailing by four points, Pitt takes control of the game with a 7-0 run using Chris Taft's offensive rebound dunk, Julius Page's steal and layup and Chevon Troutman's three-point play. Carl Krauser leads Pitt with 16 points, Page adds 12 and Troutman grabs a career-high 14 boards.

2-Oklahoma State 63, 3-Pitt 51
East Rutherford, N.J. (3/25/04)

Pitt's third straight NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance is cut short as No. 2 seeded Oklahoma State uses a late 9-0 second half rally to advance to the regional final. Tony Allen scores 23 points for OSU while Carl Krauser paces Pitt with 15.

2005 • FIRST ROUND

8-Pacific 79, 9-Pitt 71
Boise, Idaho (3/17/05)

Pacific takes advantage of Pitt's slow start to take a 15-point halftime lead. Carl Krauser rallies Pitt in the second half as he scores 25 of his game-high 27 points, but the Panthers couldn't overcome the deficit.

2006 • SECOND ROUND

5-Pitt 79, 12-Kent State 64
Auburn Hills, Mich. (3/17/06)

In a rematch of the 2002 NCAA Regional game, Pitt shoots an NCAA Tournament best 67.4 percent (31-46) from the floor. Pitt builds a 40-27 halftime lead after it shoots 68 percent in the first half. Six Panthers reach double figures, led by Aaron Gray's 17 points and 13 rebounds and Ronald Ramon's 16 points.

13-Bradley 72, 5-Pitt 66
Auburn Hills, Mich. (3/19/06)

Patrick O'Bryant (28 points), Marcus Somerville (18 points) and Lawrence Wright (14 points) pace No. 13 seed Bradley. Led by 18 points from Levance Fields, Pitt could not overcome a 14-point second half deficit. Bradley, which puts together a 19-4 second half run, converts a perfect 14-14 free throws in the game's final 2:26.

2007 • SWEET SIXTEEN

3-Pitt 79, 14-Wright State 58
Buffalo, N.Y. (3/15/07)

Pitt hits 10 three-pointers and leads by as many as 25 points in the second half to defeat the Raiders. Ronald Ramon scores 14 points on four 3-pointers. Pitt's bench outscores Wright State's 36-15.

3-Pitt 84, 11-Virginia Commonwealth 79 (OT)
Buffalo, N.Y. (3/17/07)

After trailing by 19 points with 12:11 to go, VCU battles back to send the game into overtime. Levance Fields sparks Pitt in overtime, hitting a clutch three-pointer, followed by a Ronald Ramon three-pointer to give the Panthers the lead. Sam Young's layup with 52 seconds left sends the game into overtime. Young paces Pitt with 15 points.

2-UCLA 64, 3-Pitt 55
San Jose, Calif. (3/22/07)

UCLA converts 23-26 free throws and leads the entire game to defeat Pitt. The matchup features Jamie Dixon against former Pitt head coach Ben Howland. Pitt shoots just 36 percent from the floor.

2008 • SECOND ROUND

4-PItt 82, 13-Oral Roberts 63
Denver, Colo. (3/20/08)

Pitt uses an 18-0 run to take a 34-15 first half advantage and leads by 23 at halftime. With four three-pointers, Levance Fields scores a season-high 23 points and dishes out seven assists. Pitt grabs an NCAA Tournament record 50 rebounds..

5-Michigan State 65, 4-Pitt 54
Denver, Colo. (3/22/08)

In a physical contest, Michigan State uses a late second half run to register the win. Pitt erases a 40-30 lead with a 14-2 run to take a 44-42 lead on a Sam Young layup, but MSU counters with a 10-2 run. Drew Neitzel (21 points) and Kalin Lucas (19 points) key the Spartans. Levance Fields scores 19 and Sam Young finishes with 15 to pace Pitt.

2009 • ELITE EIGHT

1-PItt 72, 16-East Tennessee State 62
Dayton, Ohio (3/20/09)

In a closely contested game, Pitt builds an eight-point lead with 1:16 to go to secure the win. DeJuan Blair (27 points/16 rebounds) and Sam Young (14 points/13 rebounds) both tally double-doubles in the game.

1-Pitt 84, 8-Oklahoma State 76
Dayton, Ohio (3/20/09)

In a competitive game, both teams combine for 18 three-pointers and 98 first half points, but Pitt finally pulls away in the end. Sam Young's 32-point performance leads the Panthers as they advance to NCAA Sweet Sixteen play for the fifth time in eight years. Young's 32 points are the most scored by a Pitt player in NCAA Tournament action since 1974.

1-Pitt 60, 4-Xavier 55
Boston, Mass. (3/26/09)

Levance Fields hits a go-ahead three-pointer with 53 seconds left, then converts a steal into a layup with 24 seconds remaining to give Pitt the win. After trailing by eight points at the half, Pitt scores the first nine points and forces Xavier into missing each of its first nine second half shots. Sam Young contributes 19 points. Pitt advances to its first NCAA Regional Final and Elite Eight since 1974.

3-Villanova 78, 1-Pitt 76
Boston, Mass. (3/26/09)

In one of the most exciting NCAA Tournament games of all-time, Scottie Reynolds drives a half-length of the floor and converts a layup at the buzzer to give Villanova a 78-76 win. Villanova converts 22-23 free throws. Sam Young finishes with 28 points and DeJuan Blair adds 20 points and 10 rebounds. Blair registers double-doubles in all four NCAA Tournament games while Young averages 23.3 points for the tournament.

2010 • SECOND ROUND

3-Pitt 89, 14-Oakland 66
Milwaukee, Wis. (3/19/10)

Six Pitt players reach double figures as Pitt shoots 53.6 percent (30-56) and uses a 19-2 run early in the game to secure its eighth NCAA Tournament First Round win in the last nine years. Gilbert Brown and Jermaine Dixon each score 17 points.

6-Xavier 71, 3-Pitt 68
Milwaukee, Wis. (3/21/10)

Xavier takes advantage of a 16-0 first half run to take control, but Pitt uses a 12-0 run to rally back from a 50-37 second half deficit. Pitt trailed by one point (50-49), and had a chance to tie on the final play, but the Panthers miss two three-point attempts. Xavier's Jordan Crawford finishes with 27 points. Ashton Gibbs (19 points) and Brad Wanamaker (16 points/10 rebounds) lead Pitt. Gibbs hits four three-pointers and scores 18 points in the first half.

2011 • THIRD ROUND

1-Pitt 74, 16-UNC Asheville 51
Washington, D.C. (3/17/11)

Ashton Gibbs converts a Pitt NCAA Tournament game record six three-pointers and finishes with 26 points in leading No. 1 seed Pitt. The Panthers use a key 7-0 second half run to secure the win. Gibbs scores 20 of his 26 points in the second half. Pitt outrebounds UNC-Asheville 50-27.

8-Butler 71, 1-Pitt 70
Washington, D.C. (3/19/10)

Butler's Matt Howard converts a go-ahead free throw after he was fouled with 0.8 seconds left. Trailing 70-69, Pitt has a chance to win with 1.4 seconds to go, but converts 1-2 free throws. Pitt rallies back from a nine-point deficit with an 11-0 run and leads by as many as five points with 10:37 left. Butler's Andrew Smith gives the Bulldogs a 70-69 lead with three seconds to go on a layup. Gilbert Brown leads the way for Pitt with 24 points while Butler's Shelvin Mack hits seven three-pointers and scores a game-high 30 points.

2013 • SECOND ROUND

9-Wichita State 73, 8-Pitt 55
Salt Lake City, Utah (3/21/13)

Malcolm Armstead (22 points) and Cleanthony Early (21) pace Wichita State as the Shockers take advantage of a flagrant foul call in building a five-point halftime advantage. Wichita State hits 33 of 41 free throw attempts in the game. Led by Steven Adams' double-double of 13 points and 11 rebounds, Pitt converts just 5.9 percent (1-17) of its three-point attempts and the two teams combine for 3-37 three-point shooting.

2014 • THIRD ROUND

9-Pitt 77, 8-Colorado 48
Orlando, Fla. (3/20/14)

Pitt registers a 29-point victory, its largest NCAA Tournament win. From tipoff, the Panthers took a 13-0 lead, then extend it to 23-5 and 46-18 at halftime. Talib Zanna scores 16 of his game-high 18 points in the first half as Pitt converts 62.1 percent (18-29) of its first half shots. Pitt commits a Jamie Dixon Era and NCAA Tournament low three turnovers in the contest. Cameron Wright and Lamar Patterson contribute 11 and 10 points apiece for Pitt.

1-Florida 61, 9-Pitt 45
Orlando, Fla. (3/22/14)

No. 1 ranked and No. 1 overall seed Florida claims a 61-45 win over Pitt before a pro-Gator crowd. Following a tight, slow-paced first half, Florida guard Scottie Wilbekin swishes a running three-pointer at the buzzer to give Florida a 27-22 halftime lead. In the second half, Florida uses a 7-0 run to take a 10-point lead (34-24) with 16:01 left in the game. Wilbekin leads all scorers with 21 points. Talib Zanna contributes 10 points for Pitt, which shoots just 37 percent from the floor.

2016 • SECOND ROUND

7-Wisconsin 47, 10-Pitt 43
St. Louis, Mo. (3/18/16)

Pitt drops a hard-fought battle with back-to-back Final Four participant Wisconsin. Pitt limits the Badgers to 16 points in the opening half and led by six at intermission. Jamel Artis led the Panthers with 13 points, while James Robinson adds seven points, 11 rebounds and four assists. Ethan Happ led Wisconsin with 15 points and nine rebounds.

2023 • SECOND ROUND

11-Pitt 60, 11-Mississippi State 59
Dayton, Ohio (3/14/23)

Jamarius Burton made a go-ahead jumper with 10 seconds left and Pitt edged Mississippi State 60-59 in a back-and-forth First Four game that featured 21 lead changes - most in the NCAA Tournament in five years. Nelly Cummings led Pitt with 15 points. Greg Elliott scored 13 and Blake Hinson added 12 as the Panthers (23-11) won an NCAA Tournament game for the first time since 2014.

11-Pitt 59, 6-Iowa State 41
Greensboro, N.C. (3/17/23)

The Panthers stormed out to a 22-2 lead as Iowa State missed its first 11 shots from the field. Pitt limited the Cyclones to just 23.3 percent (14-of-60) shooting from the field and held Iowa State without a field goal for an eight minute stretch in the second half. Nelly Cummings scored a game-high 13 points, while Jamarius Burton (11) and Greg Elliott (10) also scored in double figures.

3-Xavier 84, 11-Pitt 73
Dayton, Ohio (3/19/23)

Blake Hinson scored 18 points and Jamarius Burton added 16 but it wasn't enough to overcome a Xavier offense that was efficient early with 17 assists on 19 made field goals in the opening half. All five Musketeers starters finished in double figures in scoring. Pitt cut the deficit to eight on an Elliott three with 1:45 remaining but could not get any closer.
